CHAIRMAN AND PRINCIPAL OWNER
MARK ATTANASIO

The 2019 season is the 15th for Mark Attanasio as chairman and principal owner of the Milwaukee Brewers.

Attanasio has overseen the transformation of the Club over the past few seasons, which resulted in a franchise record-tying 96-win regular season in 2018 (the best record in the National League), the National League Central Division title, a franchise-record 102 total wins and a postseason run that concluded just one game shy of a World Series berth.

The organization has focused on acquiring and developing young impact players, building one of MLB's strongest minor league systems as well as remaining an attractive team for veteran free agents. During Attanasio's tenure as principal owner, the Brewers have invested more than $150 million to improve their stadium in Milwaukee and across the minor-league system. Attanasio has also secured long-term contracts with the Club's leadership, including President of Baseball Operations and General Manager David Stearns and President of Business Operations Rick Schlesinger.

Attanasio's longstanding objective of establishing a championship-caliber team has been applied throughout the organization, both on and off the field. As part of this objective, Attanasio continues to work diligently to uphold the four cornerstone pledges he made to the Brewers and community when the Club was purchased 14 years ago:

1. FIELDING A PERENNIALLY COMPETITIVE TEAM

Attanasio has worked with David Stearns, Craig Counsell and the baseball operations staff to build a sustainable inflow of new players to join the team's veteran talent, resulting in a record-setting 2018 season. This effort was recognized by Baseball America, which named the Brewers as its 2018 Organization of the Year.

Last season, the Brewers sent a franchise-best five players to the All-Star Game, including Jesús Aguilar, Lorenzo Cain, Josh Hader, Jeremy Jeffress and Christian Yelich, who in his first season with the team was named National League Most Valuable Player.

Several key prospects also played prominent roles on the 2018 roster, including pitchers Corbin Burnes, Freddy Peralta and Brandon Woodruff, three of baseball's most highly-regarded up-and-comers. In addition, the organization saw success in the minor leagues with the emergence of 2017 first-round selection, second baseman Keston Hiura, who appeared in the All-Star Futures Game and was named MVP of the Arizona Fall League.

The 2019 team includes the addition of All-Star catcher Yasmani Grandal, who has appeared in four consecutive postseasons and two consecutive World Series.

Recognizing the importance of player development, this spring, the Brewers and the City of Phoenix completed an extensive $60-plus million upgrade to the team's training facility in Phoenix. The new facility – which includes upgrades to the stadium, main plaza, practice fields, clubhouse, medical and training facilities, video rooms, offices for coaches and front office personnel, and enhanced fan experience elements – officially opened on February 12.

2. DELIVERING THE BEST FAN EXPERIENCE POSSIBLE, WHETHER AT MILLER PARK, THROUGH BROADCASTS OR OVER THE INTERNET

Attanasio continues to appreciate the unwavering support and enthusiasm of Brewers fans and remains committed to providing them with the best experience possible. Including the postseason, more than three million fans packed Miller Park in 2018. Over the regular season, the Brewers' attendance averaged 35,195 per game, ranking 10th in all of baseball. 2018 marked the 11th time in the past 12 seasons where the Club drew more than 2.5 million fans.

In January 2019, the Brewers and American Family Insurance announced a long-term sponsorship agreement for naming rights beginning in 2021 and continuing for 15 years. As part of the agreement, the Brewers and American Family Insurance will collaboratively fund community projects, including refurbishing youth and high school baseball fields. The two organizations will also work on marketing and promotional initiatives to enhance the fan and customer experience in both the stadium and in the community.

3. REMAINING A LEADER IN THE COMMUNITY

Attanasio remains committed to and personally involved with Brewers Community Foundation (BCF), the charitable arm of the Club, as it continues to grow since its 2010 rebranding. BCF raised more than $4 million during 2018. Over the past nine years, BCF has provided over 1,800 grants totaling more than $17.5 million to nonprofit organizations across Wisconsin that support programs focused on its four areas of concentration: health, education, recreation and basic needs. In addition to fans' support of the Foundation, all uniformed Brewers players, their families, and executives of the Club's front office staff contributed their time or financial resources to BCF in 2018. Along with Christian Yelich and Ryan Braun, the Attanasio family also helped organize "California Strong" this past November to address the needs of families affected by two disastrous events in Southern California.

4. BEING AN ORGANIZATION WHERE PEOPLE WANT TO WORK, WHETHER ON THE FIELD OR BEHIND THE SCENES

Attanasio has continued to deliver on his commitment to make the Brewers organization one of the best places to work in Greater Milwaukee as well as in all of sports. During his 14 years as principal owner, the Club has grown as a desirable destination for some of baseball's top players, front office personnel and business executives.

Under Attanasio's leadership, the corporate culture has focused on best practices and achieving excellent results across all areas of the Club. This includes providing employees with training and career development as well as opportunities to participate in the Club's community outreach efforts.

BEYOND THE BREWERS

In addition to his role as chairman and principal owner, Attanasio has been an accomplished investment management executive for more than 30 years. He is a managing partner of Crescent Capital Group, Inc., an employee-owned Los Angeles-based asset management firm, which he co-founded in 1991.

Attanasio holds positions on several not-for-profit boards in Milwaukee as well as elsewhere around the United States, including the Board of Trustees of Heal the Bay, the Los Angeles County Museum of Art and Harvard-Westlake School. In addition, Attanasio is a member of Major League Baseball's Executive Council, Labor Policy Committee, Revenue Sharing Definitions Committee, and is Chairman of its Investment Committee. He is a member of LA28, the bid committee that successfully secured the 2028 Summer Olympic Games in Los Angeles. Attanasio is also an investor in the Milwaukee Admirals of the American Hockey League.

Attanasio received his A.B. from Brown University and his J.D. from the Columbia University School of Law. He and his wife, Debbie, have two sons and a grandson.

PRESIDENT - BUSINESS OPERATIONS
RICK SCHLESINGER

Rick Schlesinger is in his 17th season with the Milwaukee Brewers and first as president of business operations after being promoted to his current position on January 23, 2019. He previously served as executive vice president of business operations (2003-10) and spent the past eight seasons as chief operating officer (2011-18).

Schlesinger oversees the organization's business affairs, including finance, human resources, information technology, legal, sponsorships, marketing, ticketing, communications, broadcasting and non-baseball special events. Additionally, he oversees the Phoenix Spring Training complex operation as well as the operations of the Brewers-owned Class-A Carolina Mudcats.

In nearly every aspect of the business, the Brewers have eclipsed records during Schlesinger's tenure. In 2018, over 2.85 million fans attended games at Miller Park, representing the 11th time in the last 12 seasons that the organization has exceeded the 2.5 million attendance mark. The team has sold in excess of 2.3 million tickets for 13 consecutive seasons, making the Brewers one of just eight Major League teams to reach that level each year since 2006.

Under Schlesinger's guidance, the Club has enhanced the fan experience at Miller Park on numerous fronts. In 2017, the Brewers initiated a complete transformation of the food and beverage hospitality experience, which marked the largest Club-funded project in the history of Miller Park. Those efforts were honored with the 2017 Ballpark Digest Award for Best New Concessions Experience. Last season's most notable upgrade included a renovation of the PNC Club Level concourse, which serves as a popular destination for suite patrons and ticket buyers.

The most significant investment for 2019 is the renovation and complete rebuild of the Arizona-based facility, American Family Fields of Phoenix. The $60-plus million project includes a new clubhouse building with locker rooms and vastly improved facilities for all of the baseball operations functions. It also features a wide array of fan enhancements, including new concessions, retail stores, seating and scoreboard.

Over the years, the Brewers have expanded their reach into the community to include the rebranding of Brewers Community Foundation, Inc. and the introduction of several new initiatives to benefit area causes.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Schlesinger served as vice president of business and legal affairs/assistant general manager for the Anaheim Angels from 1998-2002 after previously working in motion picture development and production for Walt Disney Pictures and Television.

Schlesinger is actively involved in several charitable and community activities, including membership on the University of Wisconsin-Madison Department of History Board of Visitors.

A Phi Beta Kappa graduate from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1983, Schlesinger received his Juris Doctor from Harvard Law School (cum laude) in 1986. After graduating from Harvard, he spent six years at the Los Angeles law firm of Latham and Watkins before joining Disney.

Schlesinger is a native of Bayside, Wisconsin, and resides in Oconomowoc with his wife, Kate. They have five children: Bradley, Sam, Katie, Molly, and Mathieu.

PRESIDENT - BASEBALL OPERATIONS AND GENERAL MANAGER

DAVID STEARNS

David Stearns, 34, is entering his fourth season with the Milwaukee Brewers and first as president of baseball operations and general manager, earning a promotion on January 23, 2019. Stearns was named general manager on September 21, 2015, becoming the ninth GM in franchise history. He officially began this position on October 5, 2015.

Under his leadership, the Brewers won a franchise record-tying 96 games and a National League Central Division title in 2018. The team swept the Colorado Rockies in the National League Division Series and came within one game of reaching the World Series after falling to the Los Angeles Dodgers in the National League Championship Series in seven games. The Brewers also earned Baseball America's Organization of the Year award for 2018.

Prior to the 2018 season, Stearns orchestrated a series of moves that were key to the Brewers' success. The moves included trading for outfielder Christian Yelich, who ultimately was named National League MVP after posting one of the most impressive seasons in franchise history. The team also acquired All-Star outfielder Lorenzo Cain, signing him to a five-year contract, and Jhoulys Chacín, who went on to lead the Major Leagues with 35 starts.

Since becoming general manager at age 30, Stearns has implemented an approach to build and retain talent across all levels of the organization with the goal of making an impact at the Major League level. Under Stearns and Manager Craig Counsell, the Brewers have increased their win total in each season (2016-18), posting a 13-game improvement from 2016-17 (73 wins to 86) and a 10-game ascension in 2018 (96 wins). This offseason was highlighted by the signing of catcher Yasmani Grandal on January 14, 2019.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Stearns spent three seasons (2013-15) with the Houston Astros as assistant general manager. He was a key member of the management team, focusing on all areas of baseball operations, including analytics, administration, player development and scouting. During his tenure with Houston, the Astros put together one of Major League Baseball's most dramatic turnarounds in recent history as they went from 51 wins in 2013 to 70 in 2014 and 86 in 2015 to clinch a Wild Card berth.

Before joining the Astros, Stearns spent one season as director of baseball operations with the Cleveland Indians from December 2011 through November 2012, where he focused on contract negotiations, salary analysis, team strategy and roster management.

Stearns worked in the Office of the Commissioner from 2008-11, most recently as manager of labor relations. He assisted in the salary arbitration process, handling uniform player contracts, and was a member of MLB's negotiating team for the Collective Bargaining Agreement.

Prior to joining Major League Baseball, Stearns served internships in the baseball operations departments of the Pittsburgh Pirates (summers of 2005-06) and New York Mets (2008). In addition, he worked for the Arizona Fall League as assistant director of baseball operations in 2007.

Stearns graduated from Harvard University in 2007 with a bachelor's degree in political science. The New York City native resides in Milwaukee with his wife, Whitney, and their daughter, Nora.

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT - COMMUNICATIONS AND AFFILIATE OPERATIONS

TYLER BARNES

Tyler Barnes, 54, enters his 14th season with the Brewers after joining the organization in September 2005. He was promoted to his current position in November 2017.

Barnes oversees efforts related to broadcasting, media relations, community relations, publications and Brewers.com. Additionally, he is responsible for the oversight of the Class-A Carolina Mudcats and Spring Training operations, playing an integral role in the opening of the team's new Spring Training facility, American Family Fields of Phoenix. He also serves on the board of Brewers Community Foundation, Inc.

A veteran of 32 years in the sports industry, Barnes came to Milwaukee after five years in Phoenix with the Harlem Globetrotters, where he had served as chief marketing officer. In that role, he coordinated sales and marketing efforts related to the team's annual 230-game tour.

His prior experience includes six years with the Detroit Tigers and another five with the Houston Astros in marketing and communications roles. Barnes was named Michigan's Best of the Best by the Detroit Sports Broadcasters Association for his work in public relations with the Tigers.

Along with his family, he is an active supporter of Open Arms Home for Children in South Africa. He also serves on the Board of Africa On Deck, which supports participation in the game of baseball by children in underserved areas of Johannesburg.

Barnes graduated from Trinity College in Hartford, Connecticut, in 1987 with a degree in political science. He is a native of Kansas City, Missouri.

Tyler and his wife, Monica, reside in Elm Grove, Wisconsin, with their sons, Avery and Cole.

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT - STADIUM OPERATIONS

STEVE ETHIER

Steve Ethier rejoined the Brewers on December 22, 2017 as senior vice president of stadium operations. He oversees all stadium operations at Miller Park, including facilities, grounds, event services, security, special events, guest relations and other projects.

Ethier began his career in Major League Baseball in 1989 with the Minnesota Twins as assistant director of operations before a 15-year stint with the Brewers as manager of team travel (1992-97), director of event services (1997-2003) and vice president of ballpark operations (2003-06). In his first stint with the organization, Ethier played a role in the planning and opening of Miller Park in 2001.

After leaving Milwaukee, Ethier joined the Washington Nationals in 2006 as vice president of ballpark operations, where he contributed to the planning process that led to the opening of Nationals Park in 2008. He joined the Office of the Commissioner in 2008 and worked in security and facility operations with Major League Baseball before moving back to Minnesota in 2009 as executive director of the Minneapolis Convention Center.

Ethier began working for the Miami Marlins in June of 2011 as vice president of ballpark operations, where he contributed to the planning and opening of Marlins Park. He joined the Los Angeles Dodgers in 2013 and spent five seasons as senior vice president of stadium operations.

Ethier is a graduate of the University of Minnesota – Twin Cities.

CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

DANIEL FUMAI

Daniel Fumai (Few-MAY) joined the Brewers organization as chief financial officer on February 6, 2018.

Fumai manages the entirety of the financial operations for the Brewers, the Class-A Carolina Mudcats and Performance Clean. He joined the organization from ANC Sports Enterprises, where he served as executive vice president of finance and chief financial officer since 2008.

Prior to his role with ANC Sports Enterprises, Fumai worked for the San Diego Padres from 2003-08 as vice president of finance and controller. He began his career at PricewaterhouseCoopers, working in several key positions from 1992-2003.

Fumai was involved in numerous merger and acquisition deals, and in five initial public offerings for companies such as Red Hat, Lending Tree, Inc. and Infinium Software in the Boston, Massachusetts; Raleigh, North Carolina and San Diego, California offices of PricewaterhouseCoopers. While in Raleigh, he also served as the lead manager on Capitol Broadcasting, owner of the Durham Bulls.

Fumai is a certified public accountant and is a graduate of Boston University with a bachelor's degree in business administration. He serves on the board of directors of It's All About the Kids Foundation, a nonprofit organization committed to the advancement of less fortunate children through the coupling of music, the arts and the generosity of corporations and individuals.

Fumai is a native of Floral Park, New York.

CHIEF REVENUE OFFICER
JASON HARTLUND

Jason Hartlund was named chief revenue officer on May 10, 2018. He oversees ticket sales and services, suite sales, partnership sales and activation as well as business development.

Hartlund, who previously worked for the Brewers from 2005-15, returned to the organization after spending two-and-a-half years (2016-18) as managing director of business development and new arena sales for the Milwaukee Bucks. While there, he led sales efforts for the $1 billion, 30-acre mixed-use development in downtown Milwaukee, including securing the naming entitlements for both the Bucks' new state-of-the-art arena (Fiserv Forum) and practice facility (Froedtert & the Medical College of Wisconsin Sports Science Center). He also worked with Harley-Davidson to secure the Bucks' first jersey patch partner.

Hartlund first joined the Brewers as director of corporate marketing in 2005 and was promoted to senior director in 2006. From 2008-15, he was vice president of Brewers Enterprises and event services. In this role, he secured the H.O.G. (Harley Owners Group) 25th Anniversary Festival, Farm Aid's 25th Anniversary Concert, Kenny Chesney's No Shoes Nation Tour, Paul McCartney's Out There Tour and One Direction's On The Road Again Tour.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Hartlund was manager of corporate sales for the Green Bay Packers from 2002-05. He also worked as a sports marketing manager for PSP Sports Marketing from 2000-02 and in sales and management for United Sports Ventures, a privately held company that owned and operated minor-league sports franchises.

Hartlund is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire. He and his wife, Lisa, reside in Colgate, Wisconsin, along with their daughter, Maggie, and son, Matt.

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT - MARKETING AND FAN EXPERIENCE
TEDDY WERNER

Teddy Werner, 42, enters his 14th season with the Brewers and second as senior vice president of marketing and fan experience.

Werner was promoted to his current position in November 2017 following one season as vice president of marketing and business strategy. He manages all aspects of consumer marketing, new media, advertising, branding, and creative initiatives, and also oversees in-game entertainment and event presentation.

In addition, Werner assists in various areas of the organization's business affairs, with particular attention paid to the relationship with its concessionaire, Delaware North, as well as various enhancements to the Miller Park experience. Prior to the 2017 season, he oversaw the remodel of the food and beverage program at Miller Park.

In 2012, Werner was named to the "Forty Under 40" list by The Milwaukee Business Journal. Werner is a board member of the Milwaukee College Preparatory School, the Froedtert Hospital Foundation and the Children's Hospital of Wisconsin Foundation. He is also a co-founder of the Miracle League of Milwaukee.

Before joining the Brewers, Werner was a labor and employment associate at Proskauer Rose, LLP in New York from 2003-06. He worked in the NFL's Media Relations Department from 1998-2000. Werner graduated from Yale University in 1998 and from Duke Law School in 2003.

A native of Los Angeles, Teddy resides in Whitefish Bay, Wisconsin, with his wife, Karin, and children, Isabel, Andy and Nora. He has completed the Boston, Chicago and New York City Marathons and enjoys golf, skiing, paddleboarding on Lake Michigan and spending time with his family.

GENERAL COUNSEL
AND SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT - ADMINISTRATION
MARTI WRONSKI

Marti Wronski is entering her 16th season with the Brewers. She was promoted from vice president and general counsel to her current role in November 2017.

Wronski oversees the Club's Legal, Information Technology and Human Resources Departments. In her role as general counsel, Wronski oversees all legal and contract work, including negotiating players' and coaches' contracts, sponsorship contracts, overseeing legal designs for trademark and fan entertainment, as well as managing compliance matters.

Wronski was a member of the Marquette University Law School faculty prior to joining the Brewers and continues to act as an adjunct professor for both the Law School and MBA programs. She also was a litigation associate at Foley and Lardner, LLP from 1997-2001.

A native of Neenah, Wisconsin, Wronski attended St. Norbert College, where she graduated summa cum laude in 1994. She then graduated from the University of Wisconsin Law School with honors.

In June 2006, she was named a "Woman of Influence" by The Business Journal, an honor for women who make a difference in the Milwaukee community and positively influence the people they work with daily. She was also named to that same publication's "Forty Under 40" list in 2010 and was named as one of its "Top Corporate Counsel" members in 2012. In 2016 Wronski received the Joseph E. O'Neill Award from Marquette University Law School, and holds an honorary doctorate from St. Norbert College.

Wronski serves on a number of community boards, including Betty Brinn Children's Museum and is a friend of Make-A-Wish Wisconsin.

VICE PRESIDENT AND ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

MATT ARNOLD

Matt Arnold, 40, begins his fourth season with the Brewers after being named vice president and assistant general manager on October 14, 2015.

Arnold assists President of Baseball Operations and General Manager David Stearns with day-to-day baseball processes and provides functional oversight of all departments within baseball operations. His areas of focus include Major League operations, roster construction, financial planning, staffing and personnel development, contract negotiations and player personnel decisions. Arnold also provides supervision within player development, medical operations, integrative sports performance, scouting and analytics.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Arnold served as director of player personnel with the Tampa Bay Rays. During his time with the Rays (2007-15), Arnold assisted Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations Andrew Friedman and President of Baseball Operations Matt Silverman with player acquisitions, contract negotiations and player evaluations at all levels. His responsibilities also included strategic planning, foreign and domestic special assignments, and coordinating advance scouting for the postseason. Additionally, he worked to develop the process of integrating science, biomechanics and human movement analysis within all levels of baseball operations.

Arnold joined the Rays following the 2006 season as a professional scout and was promoted to director of professional scouting in November 2009. In that role, he supervised the team's Major League and pro scouting departments. He was promoted to his most recent position with the Rays in June 2015.

During his tenure in Tampa Bay, the Rays won over 90 games in five out of six seasons between 2008 and 2013, and qualified for the postseason four times (2008, 2010, 2011 and 2013), including the franchise's first World Series appearance in 2008.

Arnold, who has 18 seasons of professional baseball experience, also worked in the baseball operations departments of the Los Angeles Dodgers (2000), Texas Rangers (2002) and Cincinnati Reds (2003-06).

While with the Reds, Arnold served as assistant director of professional scouting with his duties including player analysis, financial planning and arbitration, as well as involvement in advance, amateur and professional scouting.

Originally from California, Arnold attended the University of California-Santa Barbara, where he earned a degree in economics and merited academic honors, including Sport Management Student of the Year. While there, he met his wife, Jodi. The couple has a daughter, Julianne, and a son, Tyler.

SENIOR ADVISOR

DOUG MELVIN

Doug Melvin joined the Brewers on September 26, 2002 as the eighth general manager in team history. On May 8, 2012, the Brewers announced a contract extension through 2015 along with a promotion to president of baseball operations and general manager.

Melvin, 66, now serves as senior advisor with the organization. On August 11, 2015, Melvin and the team announced that he would transition into his current role following the 2015 season, his 20th as a general manager in the Major Leagues.

During his 13-year tenure as general manager of the Brewers, his teams had 1,024 regular-season wins and two postseason berths, including a 2011 National League Central Division championship. Melvin was named 2011 Major League Executive of the Year by Baseball America after the team won a franchise-record 96 games on the way to its first division title since 1982. In addition, he was awarded Co-Executive of the Year honors by The Sporting News that season along with Detroit's Dave Dombrowski.

In 2008, Melvin helped bring the franchise its first postseason berth in 26 years as the team finished 90-72 to capture the National League Wild Card. The midseason acquisition of CC Sabathia from Cleveland was key to the postseason run and will go down as one of the biggest trades in team history. In 2007, the Brewers posted their first winning record since 1992 as they went 83-79 and finished just 2.0 games behind the Cubs in the National League Central Division.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Melvin was the general manager of the Texas Rangers from October 10, 1994 through 2001. He helped the Rangers earn their first postseason appearance ever in 1996. Under his direction, the team won the American League West three times. Melvin was hired in Texas by former President George W. Bush and former United States Ambassador to Japan Tom Schieffer.

Before joining the Rangers, Melvin spent nine years in the Baltimore Orioles organization as a special assistant to Owner Edward Bennett Williams and President Larry Lucchino, beginning in 1986. He became director of player personnel in charge of minor league operations in November 1987 and added the title of assistant general manager under Executive Vice President and General Manager Roland Hemond in 1988.

Melvin worked for the New York Yankees from 1979-85 following his playing career. He pitched batting practice and coordinated advance scouting reports for the coaching staff, earning a promotion to scouting director in 1985. In that role, he and Fred Ferreira were responsible for signing five-time All-Star center fielder Bernie Williams.

As a player, Melvin pitched for six seasons in the minor leagues for the Pirates and Yankees, going 29-19 with a 3.43 ERA. He was signed by Pittsburgh in 1972 and pitched two years in their farm system. After sitting out the 1974 season with a leg injury, he was signed by the Yankees by Pat Gillick and played four more years.

Highly decorated, Melvin was named American League Executive of the Year by Baseball America in 1996 and Major League Executive of the Year by the same publication in 1998 and 2011. He also earned that award from The Sporting News in 1996 and 2011. Melvin was awarded National League Executive of the Year twice by the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum (2008 and 2011). He was inducted into the Canadian Baseball Hall of Fame in 2012, and is also a member of the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame (1997) and the Chatham, Ontario, Sports Hall of Fame (2000). Last summer, Melvin was enshrined on the Brewers Wall of Honor.

Doug and his wife, Ellen, have been visible in the community, supporting local breast cancer and research prevention programs. They have two children, Ashley and Cory. Ashley works with the Wounded Warrior Project and Cory is a scout with the Yankees.

VICE PRESIDENT AND SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

RAY MONTGOMERY

Ray Montgomery, 49, was named vice president and special assistant to the general manager following two seasons (2017-18) as vice president of scouting. He serves as a lead evaluator across the entire spectrum of baseball operations including professional, international and amateur scouting.

Montgomery, who rejoined the Brewers organization in November 2014, spent two seasons as vice president of amateur scouting/special assistant to the general manager. While in this position, Montgomery selected outfielders Trent Grisham (15th overall in 2015) and Corey Ray (fifth overall in 2016) as first-round draft selections.

Montgomery originally joined the Brewers as an area scout for South Texas and Louisiana in December 2002. He served as an area scout until 2006, was Midwest crosschecker from 2007-10 and assistant director of amateur scouting from 2009-10.

Montgomery spent four seasons as director of scouting with the Arizona Diamondbacks (2011-14), where he was responsible for overseeing the assignment and evaluations of the D-backs' amateur scouts leading up to the First-Year Player Draft. While in this role, Arizona became the first team in Major League history to have two of the first seven selections in the 2011 draft, taking right-handed pitchers Trevor Bauer (third) and Archie Bradley (seventh).

Montgomery was selected by the Houston Astros in the 13th round of the 1990 First-Year Player Draft and had a 12-year playing career from 1990-2001. He spent parts of three seasons in the Major Leagues with Houston (1996-98), batting .241 with 1 HR and 8 RBI in 47 games. The former outfielder also played in the Pirates (1999-2000) and Mets (2001) organizations.

A First Team All-American at Fordham University in 1990, Montgomery was inducted into the university's Hall of Fame in 1999. Ray resides in Simsbury, Connecticut, with his wife, Daniela, and children, Jack and Emma.

VICE PRESIDENT - PLAYER PERSONNEL

KARL MUELLER

Karl Mueller, 39, is entering his 16th season with the Brewers. He was promoted to his current position in October 2017.

Mueller joined the Brewers as a baseball operations assistant in January 2004. He held positions as coordinator/manager of advance scouting and baseball research (2005-10), director of video scouting and baseball research (2011-15) and director of baseball operations (2016-17).

In his current role, Mueller assists President of Baseball Operations and General Manager David Stearns and Assistant General Manager Matt Arnold with player acquisitions analysis, roster construction, contract negotiations, salary arbitration, budget management and hiring efforts. He also provides departmental oversight of baseball research and development, baseball systems, advance scouting, video operations and professional scouting.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Mueller spent the 2003 season as a baseball operations intern with the Cincinnati Reds.

Mueller graduated from Purdue University in 2002 with a degree in business management and minors in finance and management information systems. He obtained his master's degree in sport administration from Xavier University the following year.

His grandfather, Edward, played third base in the St. Louis Browns organization for two years following his service in World War II and was a teammate of Don Larsen with the Aberdeen Pheasants in 1947.

Karl and his wife, Emily, reside in Waukesha, Wisconsin, with their three children, Mia, Johnny and Charlotte. He is a native of Lawrenceburg, Indiana.

FARM DIRECTOR

TOM FLANAGAN

Tom Flanagan, 46, enters his 30th season in the Brewers organization and fourth as farm director. He was named the 10th farm director in franchise history on November 13, 2015.

Flanagan oversees the Club's player development department and all minor-league operations, including each of the organization's minor-league affiliates as well as the Brewers Baseball Academy in the Dominican Republic.

Flanagan previously served as senior director of baseball operations (2006-15). Prior to that role, Flanagan was the assistant director of scouting (2000-2005). During each of the six First-Year Player Drafts in which he took part, the Brewers selected at least one future Major League All-Star, including Corey Hart (2000), J.J. Hardy (2001), Prince Fielder (2002), Rickie Weeks (2003), Yovani Gallardo and Lorenzo Cain (2004), and Ryan Braun and Michael Brantley (2005).

Having originally joined the organization in 1990 as a batboy, Flanagan also held front office positions as an attendant in the home clubhouse (1993-96) and baseball operations assistant (1996-99).

Born in Milwaukee, Flanagan graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, where he earned a degree in business administration. Tom and his wife, Jennifer, reside in New Berlin, Wisconsin, with their son, Michael, and daughter, Molly.

DIRECTOR - AMATEUR SCOUTING

TOD JOHNSON

Tod Johnson, 46, begins his 12th season with the Brewers and third as director of amateur scouting. Having been named to his current position in September 2016, his role includes the oversight of all amateur scouting operations, including preparations for the annual First-Year Player Draft.

Johnson previously spent six seasons (2011-16) as assistant director of amateur scouting, where he assisted the amateur scouting department with scheduling, information gathering and analysis, in addition to scouting players for the amateur draft. He also worked with the baseball research and development department to set the direction for the usage of data and technology in the baseball operations department.

Johnson spent 2007-09 as director of application development for the Brewers before serving as a baseball systems architect for the San Diego Padres in 2010.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Johnson worked with the Microsoft Corporation (2002-07), Epiphany Software, Inc. (2000-02) and Hewlett Packard (1995-2000).

A native of Turlock, California, Johnson graduated from California Polytechnic State University-San Luis Obispo, where he played on the baseball team. He earned his bachelor's degree in business with a concentration in management information systems and received his MBA from the University of California-Davis in 2000.

Tod and his wife, Tricia, have two daughters, Eva and Alayna, and reside in Elm Grove, Wisconsin.

DIRECTOR - BASEBALL OPERATIONS

MATT KLEINE

Matt Kleine, 33, enters his 13th season with the Brewers and second as director of baseball operations.

In his current role, Kleine works directly with David Stearns, Matt Arnold and Karl Mueller. He focuses primarily on the areas of roster construction, player evaluations, contract negotiations and administration of the department's strategic initiatives. Kleine also leads the club's salary arbitration practice, oversees the department's internship program and is responsible for the club's procedural compliance with Major League Baseball rules.

Kleine, who joined the organization as an associate scout in 2007, previously served as manager of baseball operations.

A native of Fishers, Indiana, Kleine graduated cum laude from DePauw University, where he was a four-year letter winner and captain of the 2008 baseball team that holds the school record for wins and winning percentage. He graduated as the school's all-time leader in RBI and was a three-time team MVP and all-conference outfielder.

Kleine earned his Juris Doctor from Marquette University Law School and obtained his certification in sports law from the National Sports Law Institute while at Marquette.

Matt and his wife, Samantha, reside in St. Francis, Wisconsin with their newborn son, Cooper.

DIRECTOR - BASEBALL RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

DAN TURKENKOPF

Dan Turkenkopf is entering his fourth season with the Brewers after being named director of research and development in November 2015.

Turkenkopf previously worked with the Tampa Bay Rays from 2013-15 as developer of baseball systems. In that role, he designed applications to convey information to the baseball operations staff, coaches and players, and evaluated potential roster transactions.

In addition to his work in the front office, Turkenkopf has been active in the public analysis space since 2008, writing for Baseball Prospectus, The Hardball Times and Beyond the Box Score. While with Baseball Prospectus, he helped author a book entitled Extra Innings: More Baseball Between the Numbers.

Outside of baseball, Turkenkopf has held positions as senior director of strategic research for Apprenda, a cloud software startup, and as a solutions architect with IBM.

Turkenkopf holds a degree in economics from the Wharton School of Business and a degree in mathematics from the University of Pennsylvania. He lives in Saratoga Springs, New York, with his wife and nine-year-old twins.

SENIOR DIRECTOR - TEAM TRAVEL AND CLUBHOUSE OPERATIONS

DAN LARREA

Dan Larrea joined the Brewers in 1996 as a member of the Media Relations Department. He enters his seventh season in his current position after being promoted in October 2012. Larrea spent 16 seasons (1997-2012) as director of team travel and is considered the second Latino traveling secretary in Major League Baseball history.

Larrea, now in his 24th season with the Brewers, was the recipient of the 2013 Major League Baseball Traveling Secretary of the Year Award presented by the Marriott/Ritz-Carlton Hotels, as voted on by all 30 Major League Baseball teams.

Larrea is responsible for coordinating all phases of travel logistics for Brewers players, coaches and front office staff, including all Spring Training arrangements in Phoenix, Arizona. His duties include arranging hotel rooms, buses, air travel, baggage transportation, game tickets and per diems for Spring Training, the regular season and postseason. He also oversees the home and visiting clubhouses and equipment staff.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Larrea was a graduate intern in the Media Relations Department of the Denver Broncos in 1995. He earned his bachelor's degree in political science from the University of California-Santa Barbara in 1992, where he played rugby and was selected to the Southern California Collegiate All-Star team. He received his master's degree in sport management from the University of Massachusetts in 1995.

In October 2014, Larrea was selected as liaison officer by the New Zealand All Blacks national rugby team for their historic match against the United States at Soldier Field. An avid soccer fan, he is a shareholder in Real Oviedo of the Spanish Segunda Division B League.

Born in Sacramento, California, Dan and his wife, Stacy, with their twins, Isabella and Jacob, reside in Mequon, Wisconsin.

DIRECTOR - MEDICAL OPERATIONS

ROGER CAPLINGER

Roger Caplinger, 52, enters his 29th season with the Brewers and eighth in his current position.

Caplinger oversees all operations of the Brewers' athletic training, strength and conditioning, and medical staffs at all levels within the organization. He is also responsible for all workers' compensation processing, budgeting for the organization's medical staff and implementing an emergency response team, OSHA plan and AED program at Miller Park.

As head athletic trainer, the medical staff was recognized in 2005 when Baseball Prospectus presented the Dick Martin Award to the Brewers as the top medical staff in all of baseball. In 2014 and 2015, the Brewers' medical staff was honored with the Martin-Monahan Award for Best Medical Staff in Major League Baseball by Rotowire.

Prior to spending 2002-11 as head athletic trainer, Caplinger was assistant athletic trainer from 1998-2001. He was part of a team that was named Major League Baseball Athletic Training Staff of the Year in 2001. He was minor league medical coordinator from 1995-1997.

Caplinger, a member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association, the Wisconsin Athletic Trainers' Association and the Arizona Athletic Trainers' Association, is a licensed athletic trainer in both Wisconsin and Arizona. He is a 1991 graduate of Metropolitan State University of Denver.

Roger and his wife, Jackie, reside in Menomonee Falls, Wisconsin. He has two children, daughter, Gabrielle, and son, Ryan, and two stepsons, Kyle and Brett.

DIRECTOR - PSYCHOLOGICAL SERVICES

MATT KRUG, PH.D.

Matt Krug, Ph.D., 44, is entering his ninth season in his current role. He joined the organization in 2006 as a sports psychology consultant.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Krug worked with IMG Academies in Bradenton, Florida, and has served as the owner of the Midwest Institute of Performance in Brookfield. He has also worked as an assistant professor of psychology at Wisconsin Lutheran College.

Krug received his bachelor's degree in psychology from Wisconsin Lutheran College and his master's degrees from San Diego State University and Marquette University. He most recently received his doctorate in counseling psychology from Marquette University.

A native of San Diego, Matt and his wife, Anne, reside in Wauwatosa, Wisconsin, with their daughters, Elise and Clara.

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

SCOTT BARRINGER

Scott Barringer is entering his first season as head athletic trainer after being named to the position on November, 19, 2018.

Barringer joined the Brewers from the Houston Astros, where he recently completed his second season as assistant athletic trainer. In his first season in that position (2017), Barringer was part of a group that was named Major League Baseball Athletic Training Staff of the Year, an award that is presented by the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS) and voted on by training staffs from throughout the league. He also served the Astros as minor league medical coordinator in 2016.

Prior to his stint with the Astros, Barringer spent five seasons as a minor league athletic trainer in the Arizona Diamondbacks (2011-12) and Chicago Cubs (2013-15) organizations. He spent two seasons with the Diamondbacks as the athletic trainer at Rookie Missoula (2011) and Class-A Visalia (2012), then joined the Cubs organization as an athletic trainer at Double-A Tennessee (2013) and Triple-A Iowa (2014-15). Additionally, he also was an athletic trainer in the Arizona Fall League with the Mesa Solar Sox in 2013.

Barringer earned his bachelor's degree in athletic training from East Stroudsburg University and his master's degree from East Carolina University, where he began his career as a graduate assistant athletic trainer (2009-11).

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

DAVE YEAGER

Dave Yeager begins his eighth season as assistant athletic trainer with the Brewers. During consecutive seasons from 2014-15, the Brewers' medical staff was honored with the Martin-Monahan Award for Best Medical Staff in Major League Baseball by Rotowire.

Yeager is in his 15th season in the Brewers organization. He also spent time with Double-A Huntsville (2005-09), where he was named 2007 Southern League Athletic Trainer of the Year by his peers. From 2010-11, he was the athletic trainer at Triple-A Nashville.

Yeager earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science from Auburn University. He received his Master of Science in Education degree in physical education from Jacksonville State University.

Dave and his wife, Wendy, have two sons, Duke and Seth. His family resides in Alabama.

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

RAFAEL FREITAS

Rafael Freitas, 32, is in his third season as assistant athletic trainer with the Brewers.

Freitas began his professional career as an athletic trainer with the Cincinnati Reds organization (2012-13), working at their Dominican Republic Academy. From 2014-2015, he was the Diamondbacks' Low-A athletic trainer (South Bend SilverHawks in 2014 and Kane County Cougars in 2015). He spent the 2016 season as the athletic trainer at Triple-A Memphis in the St. Louis Cardinals organization.

Freitas worked with Toros Azucareros del Este in the Dominican Winter League in 2013. He served as the head athletic trainer for Team Brazil during the World Baseball Classic qualifiers in 2012 and 2016, and the main draw of the tournament in 2013 in Japan. In 2015, he was voted by his peers as the Midwest League Athletic Trainer of the Year. He is a NATA Certified Athletic Trainer and is also certified by the NSCA as a Strength and Conditioning Specialist.

Freitas earned his bachelor's degree from Florida State University and his master's degree from Florida International University. He is a native of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

JOSH SELIGMAN

Josh Seligman enters his ninth season with the Brewers after joining the organization prior to the 2011 season. He is part of the staff that won the Martin-Monahan Award for Best Medical Staff in Major League Baseball by Rotowire during two consecutive seasons (2014-15).

Seligman spent seven seasons (2004-10) with the Florida Marlins organization as minor league strength and conditioning coordinator and assistant rehab athletic trainer. In 2005, he was voted Florida Marlins Athletic Trainer/Strength Coach of the Year.

Seligman graduated from Willamette University with a bachelor's degree in exercise science in 1998. He earned master's degrees in sports nutrition and kinesiology from the University of Hawaii. Seligman was an athletic training graduate assistant with the University of Hawaii athletics department from 2001-04.

A native of Santa Barbara, California, Josh resides in Pewaukee, Wisconsin, with his wife, Michelle, daughter, Sage, and son, Noah.

JASON MEREDITH

Jason Meredith begins his third season with the Brewers after joining the organization in November 2016.

Prior to joining the Brewers, he spent seven seasons in the Phillies organization, most recently as minor league strength and conditioning coordinator (2014-16). He was the strength and conditioning coach at Triple-A Lehigh Valley (2011-13) and served an internship at Double-A Reading in 2009.

In 2010, Meredith worked as the strength and conditioning coach at Double-A Trenton in the Yankees organization.

Meredith earned his bachelor's degree from Iowa State University in exercise and sports science - athletic training in 2005 and received his master's degree in applied physiology and kinesiology from the University of Florida in 2007. While in college, he spent the 2004 summer as an athletic training intern with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Jason and his wife, Christina, reside in Chandler, Arizona with their two children, daughter, Isabella, and son, Alexander.

ORGANIZATION OF THE YEAR

The Milwaukee Brewers were selected as the recipient of the 2018 Organization of the Year by Baseball America.

"We honored the Brewers as our Organization of the Year not just because they had a very successful big league season," said Baseball America Executive Editor J.J. Cooper. "We try to ensure that our flagship award digs deeper than that. The Brewers' run to the National League Championship Series was built by successful player development, scouting and analytics departments. We've been impressed with Milwaukee's ability to develop and graduate prospects to the Major Leagues, as well as the Brewers' ability to use their farm system to improve the Major League club, most notably with last year's Christian Yelich trade."

The award is selected by the staff of Baseball America. The honor recognizes not only the success at the Major League level, but also the organization's amateur, professional and international scouting, farm system and player development efforts.

"This award recognizes the efforts that every single person associated with the Brewers puts forth on a daily basis to create a championship-caliber organization," said President of Baseball Operations and General Manager David Stearns. "We are proud of what we have here in Milwaukee and look forward to building on the 2018 season."

The Brewers finished the 2018 regular season with a National League-best 96 wins, leading to a Central Division title. The team went on to sweep the Colorado Rockies in the National League Division Series before falling to the Los Angeles Dodgers in the National League Championship Series in seven games. Including the postseason, the Brewers recorded 102 wins, a franchise record for a single year, breaking the previous mark of 101 wins accomplished in 1982 and 2011.

This marks the fourth time that the Brewers have won the Organization of the Year award and the first since winning three times in a row from 1985-87.

The Brewers were presented the 2018 Organization of the Year award by Baseball America at the Winter Meetings.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS

MILLER PARK

The Milwaukee Brewers take pride in offering the best overall experience for every fan who attends a game. Central to the quality of the fan experience is the team's jewel of a ballpark, Miller Park.

Year in and year out, the Brewers' fan experience has received honors from both fans and media in annual polling and surveys. In 2014, Miller Park was voted as MLB's best ballpark in The Sporting News' Best Ballpark Bracket. Earlier in 2014, the home of the Brewers finished 10th out of all 122 ranked teams in the category of "Stadium Experience" and 15th overall in "Affordability" in ESPN the Magazine's annual "Ultimate Standings: Fan Satisfaction Rankings." In 2012, a fan vote on ESPN.com was another to rate Miller Park as "Major League Baseball's Best Ballpark."

Over 2.85 million fans attended games at Miller Park in 2018, representing the 11th time in the last 12 seasons that the team has exceeded this attendance mark. The Brewers have sold in excess of 2.3 million tickets for 13 consecutive seasons and are one of just eight teams to reach that level every year since 2006.

One of the keys to Miller Park's popularity is that it is a dynamic facility that has adapted to changing fan tastes each season. The most notable upgrade in 2018 included a renovation of the PNC Club Level concourse, which serves as a popular destination for suite patrons and ticket buyers. The project featured a redesign and modernization to the corridor, including large wall graphics commemorating various moments in Miller Park history, along with a hospitality station and new dining options. These latest improvements are a continuation of annual upgrades to the Brewers' majestic home.

In 2017, the Brewers initiated a complete transformation of the food and beverage hospitality experience at Miller Park, which marked the largest Club-funded project in the history of Miller Park. Those efforts were honored with the 2017 Ballpark Digest Award for Best New Concessions Experience, presented by Ballpark Digest. The project encompassed an architectural redesign throughout the ballpark, including a total of 11 concession stands in the new "First Base Ward" and "Third Base Ward" on the Field Level and two new Field Level full-service bars with a variety of MillerCoors offerings and views of the field. The construction and rebranding of new stands, spanning all seating levels of the ballpark, leverages the rich architectural history of Milwaukee. Another element of the redesign was the "Local Brews" Bar on the right-field side of the Loge Level. This gathering spot features an expanded beer program with 30 taps serving craft beers from across Wisconsin for fans to enjoy.

New additions at Miller Park in 2016 included an enhanced U.S. Cellular Power Playground kids' area, a renovated Home Plate Team Store and a new executive suite for hosting meetings and entertaining at games. In 2015, the signature project was "The Selig Experience," a state-of-the-art attraction honoring former Brewers Owner and Commissioner Emeritus, Hall of Famer Allan H. (Bud) Selig. A highlight of the Experience is a multimedia presentation that tells the story of Selig's role in saving Major League Baseball in Milwaukee, his successful efforts to bring the Brewers to the city and his tireless efforts to promote and grow the game in his hometown.

The 2014 season brought the Brewers Wall of Honor, a new Bob Uecker "Last Row Statue" and the expansion of the Brewers Team Store by Majestic. Updates to the ballpark in 2013 included the Miller Lite Deck and renovations to the Johnsonville Deck and the SKYY Lounge on the Club Level. In 2011, the Brewers debuted a state-of-the-art, high-definition scoreboard at Miller Park. At 5,940 square feet, it is one of the largest scoreboards in Major League Baseball and was also the third true 1080, high-definition scoreboard in baseball.

Other major updates to the ballpark over the years include the Brewers Team Store on the Club Level (2012); a party suite honoring the 2011 Brewers (2012); the Brewers Team Store on the Terrace Level (2009); the main Brewers Team Store by Majestic (2009); the renovation of 43 Club Level suites (2009); the renovation of the Johnson Controls Stadium Club (2008); the Northwestern Mutual Legends Club (2007) and the Aurora Health Care Bullpen (2007).

Miller Park's debut dates to April 6, 2001. In front of the President of the United States, the Commissioner of Baseball and many more dignitaries, the Milwaukee Brewers and Cincinnati Reds christened Miller Park in a thrilling game, culminating with a game-winning home run from Richie Sexson in the bottom of the eighth inning. On that day, President George W. Bush became the first sitting president to attend a professional sporting event in the state of Wisconsin. He, along with Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, threw out ceremonial first pitches prior to the game.

Built to accommodate a variety of events, Miller Park is not only the home to Brewers baseball. In its inaugural 2001 season, the park played host to a pair of major concerts, the George Strait Country Music Festival in May and a show by the band 'N Sync in July. Both concerts drew more than 34,000 fans each and earned rave reviews from the performers and fans alike.

This was just the beginning. In 2003, legendary rocker Bruce Springsteen brought his E Street Band to Miller Park for the first time for a memorable performance in front of more than 30,000 fans. The ballpark also hosted the filming of the movie Mr. 3000, starring Bernie Mac and Angela Bassett, as well as the Miller Lite Masters Professional Bowlers Association Finals and one of the Midwest's largest youth chess tournaments.

In August 2005, Miller Park played host to the 150th birthday party for its namesake, the Miller Brewing Company. A mini-village was built on the field along with a stage where rocker Bon Jovi played to a capacity crowd. In 2008, H.O.G. (the Harley Owners Group) celebrated its 25th anniversary with a spectacular rally of 45,000 motorcycle enthusiasts and a concert, featuring Kid Rock, in the Miller Park parking lots. In October 2010, Miller Park hosted the 25th Anniversary Farm Aid Benefit Concert, featuring performances by such luminaries as Neil Young, Willie Nelson, Dave Matthews and John Mellencamp.

In 2013, Miller Park hosted two sold-out concerts, Kenny Chesney's No Shoes Nation Tour and Paul McCartney's Out There Tour. Miller Park accommodated an international soccer showdown of elite clubs in 2014 as Swansea City A.F.C of the English Premier League faced Chivas of Mexico's Liga MX. Soccer returned to Miller Park the following July with a friendly competition between Atlas Futbol Club from the Mexican Liga MX and Newcastle Football Club of the English Premier League. Also in 2015, boy band sensation One Direction rocked the venue during their On the Road Again Tour.

In 2016, Kenny Chesney returned to Miller Park as part of his Spread the Love Tour. Chesney headlined Miller Park for the third time on April 28, 2018 for his Trip Around the Sun tour. He was joined by country stars Thomas Rhett, Old Dominion and Brandon Lay. Pop icon Ed Sheeran performed in front of a sold-out crowd at Miller Park on October 24, 2018 as part of his worldwide stadium tour. Last year also saw the return of an international soccer match at Miller Park between C.F. Pachuca and Club León, both from Mexico's Liga MX, on July 11, 2018. This marked the third professional soccer match ever played at Miller Park.

On April 26, legendary musician Billy Joel will make his only Midwest performance of 2019 at Miller Park. This will mark his first appearance at the ballpark in his storied career.

Miller Park has drawn over 46 million visitors to baseball games in its first 18 seasons, highlighted by a record 3,071,373 for Brewers baseball in 2011, which established the all-time Milwaukee baseball record for attendance. The ballpark's history includes hosting the 73rd Major League Baseball All-Star Game in 2002, Milwaukee's third All-Star contest and its first since 1975. It was also home to playoff games in 2008, 2011 and 2018.

TOURS

Experience the magnificence of Miller Park while enjoying an exclusive tour that includes a number of behind-the-scenes attractions. Daily tours run from late March through September and cover more than one-half mile and 70 minutes. All tours are wheelchair accessible. Groups of 20 or more must make reservations at least two weeks in advance. Admission for the Miller Park Classic Tour is $12 for adults and $8 for children 12 and under and senior citizens. Special rates are also available for youth groups. Admission for specialized tours is $15.

Tours are not offered when the Brewers play day games at Miller Park. For more information on tours, including times, please call the Miller Park Tour Hotline at (414) 902-4005.

HELFAER FIELD: WISCONSIN'S PREMIER YOUTH BASEBALL FACILITY

The Milwaukee Brewers joined with the Southeast Wisconsin Professional Baseball Park District Board and the Evan and Marion Helfaer Foundation to build Helfaer Field, the home of Wisconsin's finest youth baseball facility. Designed by Eppstein-Uhen Architects of Milwaukee, the facility was built on the site of County Stadium by Hunzinger Construction, the company that built the original County Stadium and part of the team that built Miller Park.

The $3.1 million facility was built with the help of a $2 million charitable grant from the Helfaer Foundation as well as $1.1 million from the Miller Park infrastructure budget.

Featuring 502 bleacher seats and additional concourse seating of 220, this is the premier location for youth baseball and softball leagues to host their games and tournaments. The fences reach 200 feet with walls six-feet high, with the exception of left field, where the wall is nine feet. The playing surface of Helfaer Field was replaced in October 2008, giving Little Leaguers the same playing surface that the big leaguers play on inside Miller Park.

The foul poles of County Stadium have been used at Helfaer Field, and the area where home plate existed in the old ballpark has been memorialized on the third base concourse.

The Evan and Marion Helfaer Foundation was founded on February 2, 1974, and is dedicated to charitable, religious and educational purposes in Wisconsin and the Greater Milwaukee area. Mr. Helfaer was also an original investor in the Brewers.

Helfaer Field is available for organized athletic events. The emphasis is primarily to make Helfaer Field available for youth baseball (5-12) and girls softball. However, Helfaer Field is also available for other groups and uses.

On non-Brewers home game dates, there are up to six time slots of two hours each available for rental. On Brewers home dates, there are up to three time slots at two hours each, and the facility is available for tailgate functions up to three hours prior to games on game days. For more information on Helfaer Field reservations, check out the Club's website at Brewers.com or call (414) 902-4332.

Beginning May 26, the Milwaukee Brewers will again offer fans a free chance to enjoy Helfaer Field on Sundays. The ballpark opens 2 1/2 hours prior to the Brewers' first pitch and remains open until game time on all Sundays when the Brewers play at Miller Park during the 2019 season. Kids and adults can go out and throw the ball around in the outfield at Helfaer Field and take pictures with Bernie Brewer and the Johnsonville Famous Racing Sausages on these dates. Bats are not allowed.

SELIG EXPERIENCE

A new fan experience arrived at Miller Park in 2015: a state-of-the-art attraction to honor former Brewers Owner and Commissioner Emeritus Allan H. (Bud) Selig, who was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2017.

Known as "The Selig Experience," the exhibit is located on Miller Park's Loge Level in the left-field corner. A highlight of the attraction is a multimedia presentation that tells the story of Selig's role in saving Major League Baseball in Milwaukee, his successful efforts to bring the Brewers to the city and his tireless efforts to promote and grow the game in his hometown.

Miller Park is already known as a premier destination for baseball fans, and The Selig Experience takes that to the next level. The exhibition space totals approximately 1,400 square feet, and includes authentic artifacts from Selig's tenure as Brewers owner. It celebrates the fans' love of the game, as told through the story of the Brewers' founder.

The main multimedia show builds to a surprising 3D encounter with the Commissioner himself inside an authentic reproduction of his County Stadium office, using technology found in only a handful of exhibits around the world. After the show, fans can take a sneak peek into Selig's office.

The design and production of The Selig Experience was led by BRC Imagination Arts, an experience design firm that turns brands into destinations. For more than three decades, its masterful storytellers have been chosen by iconic brands and cultural attractions all over the world to inspire and engage their audiences.

Selig's dedication to baseball has paralleled his love of his hometown of Milwaukee. His first significant move as an executive was to return Major League Baseball to Milwaukee in 1970, when he founded the Milwaukee Brewers. In their first decade, the Brewers featured some of the great teams of that era, which eventually led to an American League pennant and World Series appearance in 1982.

During his tenure as Brewers owner, Selig earned United Press International's 1978 Executive of the Year Award, and the franchise was honored with seven "Organization of the Year" awards.

In the 1990s, Selig began his efforts to build a new ballpark in Milwaukee to replace the aging County Stadium, and Miller Park opened for its first season of play in 2001.

In 2015, the Brewers retired uniform #1 in Selig's honor, signifying his role as founder of the franchise. Additionally, Selig has been honored with a statue at Miller Park, which was unveiled on August 24, 2010.

Uihlein-Wilson Architects contributed to the initial design of the space for The Selig Experience.

MILLER PARK WALK OF FAME

The Miller Park Walk of Fame commemorates some of the greatest names in Milwaukee baseball history. It is located on the plaza area outside the ballpark near the statues of Hall of Famers Hank Aaron, Robin Yount, Commissioner Emeritus Allan H. (Bud) Selig and Bob Uecker. Each inductee is honored with a granite-shaped home plate set in the ground.

Started in Miller Park's inaugural season of 2001, the Walk of Fame has welcomed 20 inductees. The first class in 2001 included Hank Aaron, Rollie Fingers, Paul Molitor and Robin Yount. In 2007, former Milwaukee Braves players were added to the ballot in an effort to honor the strong baseball tradition of the city. Geoff Jenkins became the 20th member of the Miller Park Walk of Fame in 2018.

BREWERS WALL OF HONOR

The Brewers Wall of Honor commemorates Milwaukee Brewers players, coaches and executives who meet a set criteria based on service to the organization and/or career accomplishments.

The Wall of Honor is a permanent exhibit on an exterior Miller Park wall adjacent to the Hot Corner entrance in left field. Honorees are recognized with a bronze plaque affixed to the wall, along with their image and a brief synopsis of their Brewers career etched onto the marker. The plaques are created by Matthews International, designers of the plaques for the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown.

"The Wall of Honor is designed to honor the many individuals who either spent a significant portion of their career with the Brewers or have a significant legacy with the organization through various achievements," said Brewers Chief Operating Officer Rick Schlesinger. "It is designed as a complement to our Miller Park Walk of Fame, as well as our statues."

The inaugural Wall of Honor class of 58 inductees was recognized during an induction ceremony at Miller Park on June 13, 2014. Honorees and their guests (as well as representatives of those who are deceased) were invited to attend the unveiling ceremonies and were recognized during a program on the field prior to the game.

Beginning in 2015, any player who appeared in a game with the Brewers and served as a primary broadcaster for 20 or more seasons with the team was eligible for induction. Television analyst Bill Schroeder joined the illustrious wall that year.

In 2017, Corey Hart became the 60th member to join the Wall of Honor. Last year, three new members joined the Wall of Honor, including Prince Fielder and former general managers Harry Dalton and Doug Melvin. Added to the criteria in 2018, an executive who spent 10 or more seasons as general manager in the organization with at least one postseason appearance was eligible for induction.

In addition to the members currently on the Wall of Honor, there are 11 players in Major League Baseball who meet the criteria. Upon retirement, those players will be added annually to the Wall of Honor. They include John Axford, Ryan Braun, Yovani Gallardo, Carlos Gómez, Josh Hader, J.J. Hardy, Jeremy Jeffress, Jonathan Lucroy, Francisco Rodríguez, Rickie Weeks and Christian Yelich. Additionally, any inductee into the National Baseball Hall of Fame who played for or managed the Brewers is eligible, including 2018 Hall-of-Fame inductee Trevor Hoffman.

CRITERIA FOR INDUCTION INTO WALL OF HONOR

- 2,000 or more plate appearances
- 1,000 or more innings pitched
- 250 appearances as a pitcher
- Winner of a major award (MVP, Cy Young, Rookie of the Year, Fireman of the Year)

MILWAUKEE BREWERS IN THE COMMUNITY

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

The Milwaukee Brewers Community Relations Department is committed to supporting many worthy events and activities throughout the state of Wisconsin. The Club is pleased to give back to dedicated fans who have supported the Brewers throughout the years.

Many charities, educational groups, youth groups and nonprofit organizations raise hundreds of thousands of dollars through the support of players and auction items provided by the Milwaukee Brewers. By supporting charitable causes, the Brewers, including players, coaches, Brewers Wives and front office staff, will continue exercising a pledge to be an active member in the community and help improve the welfare of people throughout the region.

BEYOND THE DIAMOND

Beyond the Diamond is a series of community outreach events that takes place during the season. This involves partnering with players, coaches, Brewers Wives, alumni and team personnel working hands-on in the community. The community events are funded in part by Brewers Community Foundation and focus on the areas of health, education, recreation and basic needs.

AUCTION REQUESTS

The Brewers receive thousands of requests annually to assist local nonprofit organizations, community and civic groups with in-kind donations for fundraising events. Being an active and contributing member of our community, it is very important to us to make every effort to accommodate requests within our region. In our continuing efforts to "Go Green," we no longer accept written letters or fax donation requests. All donation requests must be submitted online at brewers.com/donations.

BREWERS ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Brewers Alumni Association consists of over 600 players who were members of the Milwaukee Brewers or the Club's forefathers, the Seattle Pilots, during their Major League career. The Association aims to provide an opportunity for the Club's alumni to maintain relationships with former teammates, the organization and Brewers fans.

BREWERS ON DECK

Brewers On Deck is the team's annual fan fest and season preview. Families can enjoy a day full of interactive games, clinics and autographs from players along with a Brewers Community Foundation Treasure Hunt, which features game-worn jerseys, game-used equipment and other memorabilia. All proceeds from the sale go toward Brewers Community Foundation youth recreation and education programs.

BREWERS COMMUNITY ACHIEVERS

The Brewers Community Achievers progam recognizes volunteers, philanthropists and other heroes from our community who have helped their neighborhoods in extraordinary ways. The winners of the award receive four game tickets, on-field acknowledgement, a personalized jersey, and the opportunity to throw out the ceremonial first pitch. Winners also receive a Community Achievers certificate and a gift bag filled with Brewers memorabilia.

CERVECEROS DAY PRESENTED BY AURORA HEALTH CARE

During one game each year, the Brewers pay tribute to Hispanic baseball by taking the field in Cerveceros jerseys. Cerveceros is the Spanish translation of Brewers. The annual Fiesta Tailgate, which includes bilingual PA announcements, scoreboard features and mariachi bands, gives the whole ballpark a Latin flare.

BREWERS WIVES

Brewers Wives play an important role in our community outreach efforts with their commitment to several important causes. Each summer, the wives team up with Brewers Community Foundation to raise funds through a number of special events with proceeds earmarked for various organizations in Greater Milwaukee and Wisconsin. Several of the wives, along with their husbands, also support area children with game tickets, food vouchers and donations to youth groups.

FATHERHOOD INITIATIVE DAY

Brewers staff and alumni host a group of fathers and their children at a Brewers home game. Guests enjoy watching the game in a suite, and one lucky kid throws out the ceremonial first pitch. This unique program is a tie-in with the Mayor's Fatherhood Initiative to bring together the past, present and future by raising awareness about the importance of involved, responsible and committed fathers.

AFRICAN AMERICAN HERITAGE NIGHT PRESENTED BY AURORA HEALTH CARE

As part of our African American Heritage game, Brewers players wear uniforms inspired by the Milwaukee Bears - the city's 1923 Negro National League team. The game-worn jerseys are signed by the players and auctioned online. Proceeds from the auction go to Brewers Community Foundation and are earmarked for the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum in Kansas City and Yesterday's Negro League Foundation.

REVIVING BASEBALL IN THE INNER CITY (RBI)

RBI - Reviving Baseball in the Inner City - began more than 20 years ago in Los Angeles. The Brewers have joined other Major League teams in the continuing effort to bring baseball to inner-city youth, ages 9-17. Brewers RBI teams have made it to regional competitions with the support of the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Milwaukee and funding from Brewers Community Foundation.

RBI ATHLETE OF THE MONTH

Each month, an athlete who is enrolled in the Brewers RBI Program (Reviving Baseball in the Inner Cities) will be recognized for his/her dedication to academics, community involvement, leadership, reliability and monthly performance. RBI coaches can nominate their RBI Athlete of the Month online at Brewers.com.

BREWERS COMMUNITY FOUNDATION, INC.

Brewers Community Foundation, Inc. is the official charitable arm of the Milwaukee Brewers Baseball Club. We are proud to give back to our community in many ways. Brewers Community Foundation harnesses the pride, passion and commitment of Brewers fans, players and other supporters to positively impact the lives of children and families in Greater Milwaukee and Wisconsin. We seek to be thoughtful and dependable philanthropic leaders actively engaged in providing needed financial support consistent with our mission.

BREWERS COMMUNITY FOUNDATION 50/50 RAFFLE

Tickets for the 50/50 Raffle are sold throughout Miller Park from gate opening through the fourth inning of every Brewers home game. The winning ticket will be announced in the middle of the sixth inning, right before the Johnsonville Famous Sausage Race, and the winner will have until the middle of the seventh inning to claim his/her prize at the 50/50 information table. If the prize goes unclaimed by the middle of the seventh inning, another ticket will be drawn and announced. One lucky fan will take home half of the net proceeds from the game's raffle ticket sales. The other half will go to Brewers Community Foundation. Last year, Brewers Community Foundation helped more than 200 local nonprofit organizations in the area of health, education, recreation and basic needs. For the winning raffle number and amount please call the 50/50 Raffle hotline at (414) 902-4334.

BREWERS BUDDIES TICKET PROGRAM

In 2018, thousands of complimentary game tickets were distributed to youth groups and community organizations through the Brewers Buddies ticket program. The program is made possible through the generosity of season seat holders, ownership, players, sponsors and Commissioner Emeritus Bud Selig, who provides game tickets to Brewers Community Foundation for distribution to community groups. For more information about participation in this program, call (414) 902-4625.

BCF WEEK

Brewers Community Foundation will host its 10th annual BCF Week from June 4-9, 2019. The week will feature activities during each game that raise funds to support children and their families in Greater Milwaukee and Wisconsin. From merchandise sales to auctions and games, there's something for everyone.

Additionally, fans can get involved by bidding on unique experiences in the annual Ultimate Auction or by purchasing special Give Like a Pro fan packs from May 24 through June 9.

The presenting sponsors of BCF Week and the Ultimate Auction are the Brewers Community Foundation Leadership Council. To learn more, visit brewers.com/bcf.

5K FAMOUS RACING SAUSAGES™ RUN/WALK

On July 27, Brewers Community Foundation will be hosting the 21st annual 5K Famous Racing Sausages Run/Walk. Held rain or shine, this event is a summer tradition for thousands of Brewers fans of all ages. The Run/Walk features unique opportunities to compete against the Johnsonville Famous Racing Sausages and follow the route onto the Miller Park warning track, before enjoying a tailgate party with complimentary food and beverage. Each participant receives a commemorative t-shirt, ticket voucher for a future Brewers game and more. Proceeds benefit Brewers Community Foundation and Fisher House Wisconsin, a "home away from home" for families of veterans being treated at Clement J. Zablocki VA Medical Center.

The presenting sponsors of the 5K Famous Racing Sausages Run/Walk are the Brewers Community Foundation Leadership Council members. To learn more, visit brewers.com/5k.

BREWERS COMMUNITY FOUNDATION DRIVE FOR CHARITY

During select homestands throughout the season, Brewers Community Foundation invites fans to drop off items or make a donation of $5 to help those in need. As a heartfelt thank you for contributing, fans receive a collectible Brewers pin. The donated items are distributed to nonprofit organizations in Greater Milwaukee. This year, the dates include:

April 19-21: toiletries
June 28-30: peanut butter
August 9-11: school supplies
September 20-22: new hats, mittens and scarves

The presenting sponsors of the Drive for Charity events are the Brewers Community Foundation Leadership Council. To learn more, visit brewers.com/bcf.

HITTING 4 THE CYCLE

On August 24, Brewers Community Foundation will be hosting the fifth annual Hitting 4 the Cycle benefit bike ride. Fans are invited to participate in the unique 25-mile route before enjoying a post-ride tailgate party with complimentary food and beverage. Registrants will receive a commemorative t-shirt, ticket to that evening's Brewers vs. Diamondbacks game and more. The ride will once again begin and end in the parking lots of Miller Park. Proceeds from the event will benefit Brewers Community Foundation and the event's selected beneficiaries. To learn more, visit brewers.com/bikeride.

GRANT REQUESTS

Brewers Community Foundation provides a significant number of grants each year to nonprofit organizations. Our funding efforts strategically extend financial support to nonprofits that provide quality programming in the areas of health, education, recreation and basic needs, with a particular focus on low income and disadvantaged youth and their families. Grants are generally limited up to $10,000 for Wisconsin-based organizations. All grant applications are to be submitted online. For further information and the online application, please go to brewers.com/bcf.

SCOREBOARD RECOGNITION PROGRAM

Fans can purchase either a full scoreboard message or single-line shared message during a game at Miller Park through Brewers Community Foundation's Scoreboard Recognition program. For more information or to reserve a message, visit brewers.com/bcf.

CHAMPIONS FOR CHANGE SCOREBOARD MESSAGES

Before select 2019 Brewers home games, messages detailing the work of organizations that Brewers Community Foundation supports will be featured on the Miller Park scoreboard. Accordingly, fans will learn about the fantastic work being done by hundreds of nonprofits in our community, aided by the funds raised by BCF.

SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAMS

Brewers Community Foundation, Inc. is proud to offer three scholarship programs to Wisconsin students. Applications are to be submitted online from January through March. For more information and the online application, please go to brewers.com/bcf.

The Allan H. Selig Scholarship Program was created in the name of former Brewers President and Commissioner of Baseball Allan H. (Bud) Selig. Funding for the scholarships is the result of proceeds donated by Major League Baseball from the All-Star Workout Day, part of the 2002 All-Star festivities held at Miller Park. Selected candidates will receive $2,500 annually, renewable each year for a total of $10,000 over four years.

The Players/Coaches Scholarship Program is made possible thanks to Milwaukee Brewers players' and coaches' commitment to educational opportunities for youth. This scholarship is a one-year award that varies in amounts from season to season for students who plan to attend or are currently attending a college or university in Wisconsin.

The Miller Park Community Scholarship Program provided its first award in 2013. Eligible applicants must be a minority or female student residing in either Milwaukee, Waukesha, Ozaukee, Washington or Racine County. Applicants must also be students pursuing studies in a design or construction-related field at a technical college, college or university in the state of Wisconsin. Scholarship awards will be of varying amounts based on need.

SUPPORT BREWERS COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

Brewers Community Foundation is the nonprofit tax-exempt arm of the Milwaukee Brewers that supports other nonprofits in Greater Milwaukee and Wisconsin in the areas of health, education, recreation and basic needs. You can join our efforts by donating to Brewers Community Foundation at brewers.com/bcf or by contacting Tim Brever at tim.brever@brewers.com.

SPECIAL EVENTS AND GUEST EXPERIENCES

The Brewers Special Events and Guest Experiences Department focuses on the first-class experience of our fans, as well as the execution of non-game day functions at Miller Park. From taking a behind-the-scenes tour or a trip down Bernie's Slide, to hosting 5K run/walks and corporate meetings, there are many exciting ways fans can enjoy Miller Park when the Brewers are home and away. On non-game days, trade shows take place on the PNC Club Level and conferences are held year-round in our event spaces. Miller Park offers a unique and exciting location for fans during home games and clients interested in events. Miller Park is not just limited to indoor facilities, as the parking lots also offer a great option for large corporate tailgates, car shows and much more.

There are many venues throughout Miller Park that are suitable for hosting special events. Each has its own unique characteristics.

The Northwestern Mutual Legends Club can comfortably hold up to 240 people between the interior and exterior patio space during the summer months, or up to 100 people during the offseason when just the interior is available. In addition to a breathtaking floor-to-ceiling field view, comfortable furnishings and lounge furniture, indoor and outdoor full-service bars, there are 17 flat-screen televisions and multimedia equipment available for presentations and programs.

The Johnson Controls Stadium Club can accommodate up to 300 guests for non-game day events throughout the year. The Johnson Controls Stadium Club is an exclusive function space that combines baseball with a formal atmosphere. From social gatherings and business dinners to wedding receptions and holiday parties, the options are endless for events in the Johnson Controls Stadium Club on a non-game day.

The SKYY Lounge is located on the newly renovated PNC Club Level concourse behind home plate. The large open space is a great venue for a wide variety of events such as receptions and banquets or expos and seminars. Unique features of the SKYY Lounge include modern furnishings, a chef's table, an expansive full-service bar and a built-in dance floor.

The Brewers Conference Center, located on the Club and Terrace Levels, features five spaces that can accommodate up to 200 guests, and is available for pre-game meetings and presentations or as break out spaces for non-game day events. The five Conference Center rooms come equipped with ceiling-mounted projectors, drop-down screens, audio capabilities, complimentary Wi-Fi and exterior stadium views.

The Executive Suite powered by Mitel is a luxury meeting facility located on the PNC Club Level of Miller Park. This meeting space, which opened in 2016, can seat up to 30 guests and includes premier audio/visual equipment and a spectacular view of the playing field. On game days, the Executive Suite quickly converts from a board room to a premium suite with seating and food and beverages for groups that would like to hold a meeting and enjoy a Brewers game.

For a truly unique experience, clients may also host an event on the playing field, Field Level concourse or may even rent the entire ballpark. Miller Park has hosted professional soccer matches, the Spartan Race and national concert tours. When the Brewers are on the road, Miller Park can be transformed in a number of ways. You never know what type of event the ballpark will be hosting next. For more information, visit MillerPark.com.

ANNUAL SPECIAL EVENTS

Brewers Mini-Marathon

The Brewers Mini-Marathon is a half marathon (13.1 miles), 10K (6.214 miles) and 5K (3.1 miles) race with a start and finish at beautiful Miller Park, with the opportunity to run on the warning track. Each year, participants raise funds to benefit the MACC Fund (Midwest Athletes Against Childhood Cancer, Inc.) and childhood cancer research throughout Wisconsin. Once participants cross the finish line, they are invited to a post-race tailgate party at Miller Park with live music and food. The eighth annual Brewers Mini-Marathon will take place on Saturday, September 28. Registration and race information can be found at BrewersMini.com.

Field of Sweet Dreams presented by Meijer

The yearly camp-out in Bernie's backyard is a family favorite at Miller Park. Guests bring sleeping bags, tents and pillows and spend the night sleeping in the outfield under the stars. Bernie Brewer and the Johnsonville Famous Racing Sausages stop by to visit, and guests cheer on the Brewers as the away game is shown on Miller Park's scoreboard. Everyone is invited to play catch in the outfield and take a tour of Miller Park before watching a movie and hearing a bedtime story read by Brewers players and coaches. For more information, visit brewers.com/sweetdreams.

FAN EXPERIENCES

Bernie's Slide Experience

Fans have the opportunity to celebrate a Brewers home run, just like Bernie Brewer. Available before games and on non-game days, fans can book an adventure and slide down the famous Bernie's Slide in left field. This adventurous experience includes a unique behind-the-scenes tour of Miller Park, up to five rides down the slide, Bernie's Slide shirt and photo opportunities with an amazing backdrop. To book this experience, visit brewers.com/slide.

VIP Experience

Enjoy a once-in-a-lifetime game day experience at Miller Park. The VIP experience is available before select home games at Miller Park for two to eight people. The experience includes a behind the scenes tour of Miller Park, visiting locations such as the Selig Experience, press box and media interview room, and concludes with an on-field viewing of batting practice. For more information or to book your VIP Experience, visit Brewers.com/vipexperience.

Group Tours

There is more to Miller Park than what fans see on the playing field. Stop by Miller Park for a public walk-up tour, offered March through September. Miller Park offers year-round group tours for private outings and field trips. These guided tours give fans exclusive viewings of the dugout, suite level, visiting clubhouse, press box, Bob Uecker's broadcast booth and The Selig Experience as well as a historical background of Miller Park. Book a tour now by visiting brewers.com/tours.

ASSISTANT FARM DIRECTOR

EDUARDO BRIZUELA

Eduardo Brizuela, 32, begins his 11th season with the Brewers and fourth as assistant farm director. He joined the organization as an advance scouting intern in 2009. Brizuela spent three seasons each as coordinator of administration for Latin America operations and as director of Latin America operations/scouting prior to being named assistant farm director in 2016.

Brizuela is based out of the team's complex in Phoenix, Arizona. He works in conjunction with Farm Director Tom Flanagan on the implementation of the Club's organizational player development curriculum, roster management and the execution of player plans. He also oversees the Phoenix and Dominican Republic baseball operations.

Brizuela has helped the Brewers establish a presence in Latin America with the Dominican Republic Academy and the expansion of the Latin America scouting department. He is responsible for the day-to-day operations of the academy and the implementation of the player development program from the United States.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Brizuela served as an assistant coach for Polk Community College (2007-08). He graduated from Webber International University with a business management degree.

Eduardo, his wife, Yelixa, and their son, David Gael, reside in Phoenix, Arizona.

SENIOR MANAGER - BASEBALL ADMINISTRATION

MARK MUELLER

Mark Mueller, 37, is entering his 17th season with the Brewers and second as senior manager of baseball administration. He spent the previous seven years as manager of minor-league operations.

Mueller joined the Brewers as an intern in the amateur scouting department in 2003 and was named assistant to player development that year. In 2006, he was promoted to coordinator of administration and player development.

Mueller is responsible for directing and managing the travel arrangements for all minor-league transactions. He also creates and oversees the operating budgets for the player development department and coordinates minor-league operations during Spring Training. Additionally, he handles the day-to-day administration of the department and oversees the visa and immigration process for the entire baseball operations department.

The native of Janesville, Wisconsin graduated from the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse with a bachelor's degree in exercise and sport science and a sport management emphasis in 2003.

Mark and his wife, Erica, reside in Waukesha, Wisconsin, with their two children.

ATHLETIC TRAINING COORDINATOR

FRANK NEVILLE

Frank Neville, 52, begins his 17th season in the organization as athletic training coordinator, overseeing the minor-league athletic trainers while supervising the training operations in Phoenix.

In 2007 and 2008, he was recognized as the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS) Minor League Medical/Rehab Coordinator of the Year.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Neville served as an athletic training coordinator for eight seasons with the Texas Rangers (1995-2002). He has also served roles as an assistant trainer at Western Kentucky University from 1992-94 and as an athletic trainer for Rookie Bluefield in the Baltimore Orioles organization from 1991-93.

Frank resides in Avondale, Arizona, with his wife, Linda, and their three children, Bryan, Bradley and Lindsay.

REHABILITATION COORDINATOR

BLAIR BUNDY

Blair Bundy, 32, begins his second season in the organization as rehabilitation coordinator. He joined the Brewers after spending two years as a sports physical therapist and residency coordinator at Houston Methodist Hospital in Texas.

Bundy previously worked in Scottsdale, Arizona as the director of performance enhancement at Physiotherapy Associates (2015-16). From 2014-15, he served as a coordinator for a program that helped create the sports physical therapy residency at UT Southwestern in Dallas, Texas. From 2013-14, he participated in a sports physical therapy residency at Houston Methodist, where he became a board certified specialist.

Bundy pitched collegiately at Texas A&M University where he earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology in 2009. He earned a doctorate of physical therapy from the University of Texas Southwestern in 2012.

Blair, his wife, Lauren, and their son, Beau, reside in Phoenix, Arizona.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COORDINATOR

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR - AMATEUR SCOUTING

TIM McILVAINE

Tim McIlvaine, 37, begins his 14th season with the Brewers and his third in his current role.

He spent the previous three years as supervisor of amateur scouting. Prior to that, McIlvaine served as an area scout in the Mid-Atlantic area (2006-07) and Central Florida (2008-13). In eight years as an area scout, he was responsible for signing pitchers Jacob Barnes, Jeremy Jeffress and Hiram Burgos, as well as second baseman Scooter Gennett.

McIlvaine earned his bachelor's degrees in psychology and political science from Spring Hill College in Mobile, Alabama in 2003. He was a catcher and captain on Spring Hill's baseball team and returned to his alma mater as a graduate assistant following a year in professional baseball with the Minnesota Twins' Rookie Gulf Coast League team in 2004.

His father, Joe, was the general manager of the San Diego Padres (1990-93) and New York Mets (1993-97).

Tim, his wife, Janine, and their daughters, Sarah and Cayse, reside in Nashville, Tennessee.

NATIONAL SUPERVISOR

DOUG REYNOLDS

Doug Reynolds, 51, is in his 27th season with the Brewers and his 11th as a supervisor.

Reynolds previously worked as an area scout from 1993-2008, covering the areas of Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi, Northern Florida, South Carolina and Tennessee. He was responsible for signing players including Lorenzo Cain, Tim Dillard, Mat Gamel and Caleb Gindl.

Prior to joining the Brewers, he spent one year as an assistant coach at Tallahassee Community College in 1992.

Reynolds, a former catcher, was selected by the Baltimore Orioles in the 1989 First-Year Player Draft and played three minor-league seasons with the organization (1989-91). He earned his bachelor's degree in business management from Liberty University,

Doug resides in Tallahassee, Florida, with his wife, Jennifer, and three children, Brooke, Scott and Nicholas.

SUPERVISOR

COREY RODRIGUEZ

Corey Rodriguez, 50, begins his 26th season in the organization and first in his current role.

Rodriguez joined the Brewers in 1994 and spent 15 seasons as an area scout and 10 seasons as a regional supervisor prior to being named to his current position. He has been involved in many signings as an area scout and supervisor, including former All-Star outfielder Geoff Jenkins.

Rodriguez earned an associate's degree in psychology from De Anza Junior College in 1989 and a bachelor's degree in physical education from the University of South Alabama in 1992. He also earned a master's degree in athletic administration and kinesiology from California State University, Hayward in 1994.

Corey resides in Palos Verdes Estates, California. He has three children, Jadyn, Nolan and Holland.

REGIONAL SUPERVISOR

DREW ANDERSON

Drew Anderson, 37, enters his ninth season with the Brewers and his first as a regional supervisor. He spent the previous eight years as the area supervisor overseeing the Midwest region.

Anderson played baseball collegiately at the University of Nebraska, where he studied communications. During his college career, he played in the 2001 and 2002 College World Series and made the NBC World Series All-Star team in 2001. He was also a stand-out high school athlete, earning All-State honors and various accolades in baseball, football, basketball and track.

Anderson was drafted by the Brewers in the 24th round of the 2003 First-Year Player Draft. He played eight seasons of professional baseball with the Brewers (2003-07, '09-10) and Cincinnati Reds (2008), reaching the majors in 2006.

Following his professional baseball career, Anderson served as an instructional coach for a variety of camps, leagues and teaching facilities.

Drew and his wife, Ashley, reside in Kansas City, Missouri with their children, Maya, Madden, Faith and Nash.

JOSH BELOVSKY

Josh Belovsky, 45, begins his 13th season in the Brewers organization and fourth in his current position.

In addition to his current role, Belovsky serves as manager in the Area Code Games. Previously, he served as an area scout and was responsible for signing several players, including Khris Davis, Kodi Medeiros and Cody Ponce.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Belovsky served as an associate scout for the Colorado Rockies from 2002-06.

The former right-handed pitcher played professionally in the Boston Red Sox system (1999-2000) with Class-A Sarasota and Double-A Trenton. He also spent time in the Western Baseball League with the Mission Viejo Vigilantes (1998) and the Chico Heat (2001).

Belovsky received his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from California State University, Fullerton in 2004. He earned his master's degree in coaching and athletic administration from Concordia University Irvine in 2007.

Josh and his wife, Sara, reside in Orange, California, with their children, Lilian and Luke.

DAN NELLUM

Dan Nellum, 48, enters his 12th season in the Brewers organization and third in his current role.

Nellum spent the previous nine years as the Mid-Atlantic area supervisor, covering Delaware, Maryland, North Carolina, Virginia, Washington, D.C. and West Virginia.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Nellum spent 16 years coaching at the collegiate level. He began his coaching career after a back injury at Seminole State College of Florida ended his playing career, coaching there while finishing his undergraduate degree at the University of Central Florida in 1993. After a year on the staff at UCF, he served as an assistant coach at Georgetown University from 1993-96. Following his time at Georgetown, Nellum made stops at Old Dominion University and the United States Naval Academy. He helped guide both teams to conference championships and NCAA tournament appearances.

Nellum has also served as a clinician and instructor at several camps and clinics throughout the country.

Dan and his wife, Michelle, reside in Crofton, Maryland, with their two children, Maya and Daniel Jr.

BRIAN SANKEY

Brian Sankey, 44, begins his 13th season in the organization and fourth as a regional supervisor.

Sankey has worked as an amateur scout since 2007 after joining the Brewers as an associate scout in 2006. From 2007-15, he served as an area scout in South Texas and the Northeast. In his current role, Sankey oversees Arkansas, Eastern Colorado, Oklahoma and Texas.

Sankey has been responsible for signing many notable players, including former All-Star catcher Jonathan Lucroy and infielder Nate Orf.

Sankey played baseball at Boston College, where he graduated in 1996 with a degree in economics. He also played for the Orleans Cardinals of the Cape Cod League while at Boston College, winning a championship in the summer of 1993 on a team that also included Aaron Boone, Nomar Garciaparra and Jay Payton. He earned his master's degree in education at Cambridge College in 2003. In 2016, Sankey was honored with an induction into the Boston College Varsity Club Hall of Fame for Baseball. He still holds the all-time single-season record for on-base percentage (.599), which he set in 1995.

Drafted in the 32nd round by the Dodgers in the 1996 First-Year Player Draft, Sankey played three seasons of professional baseball before going on to coach at both the high school and collegiate levels.

Brian, his wife, Melissa, and their son, Austin, reside in Fort Collins, Colorado.

MIKE SERBALIK

COORDINATORS

FIELD COORDINATOR AND CATCHING INSTRUCTOR

CHARLIE GREENE

Charlie Greene, 48, enters his 13th season as field coordinator and his 15th as catching instructor.

As a catching instructor, Greene oversees and evaluates the organization's catchers while working closely with each affiliate's coaching staff.

Greene was selected by the San Diego Padres in the 19th round of the 1991 First-Year Player Draft and reached the Major Leagues with the New York Mets in 1996.

Greene spent parts of five seasons in the big leagues, also playing for the Baltimore Orioles (1997-98), Brewers (1999) and Toronto Blue Jays (2000). He spent the last four years of his career playing in the minor leagues (2001-04).

Greene's father, Charlie Sr., is one of the most well-known college coaches, having served as head coach at Miami-Dade Community College from 1968-96 and with Team USA in 1988 and 1989.

Charlie and his family reside in Tallahassee, Florida.

HITTING COORDINATOR

KENNY GRAHAM

Kenny Graham, 37, enters his third season as hitting coordinator.

Graham spent the previous seven seasons in the Toronto Blue Jays system, serving roles as co-hitting coordinator (2015) and as hitting coach at Class-A Lansing (2012-13 and '15), Rookie Bluefield (2011) and Class-A Auburn (2010). He also managed the organization's Gulf Coast League affiliate in 2014.

Prior to joining the Blue Jays organization, Graham was the hitting coach for the independent Gary Southshore Railcats for two seasons.

In addition, Graham spent several seasons as a college coach at the University of Indianapolis and Olney Central College in Olney, Illinois.

Kenny and his wife, Katie, reside in Lake St. Louis, Missouri.

INFIELD COORDINATOR

BOB MISCIK

Bob Miscik, 60, begins his 11th season in the Brewers organization and ninth in his current position.

Miscik joined the Brewers in 2009 as manager at Double-A Huntsville and also served as a coach for the All-Star Futures Game in St. Louis that year. He was the manager at Class-A Brevard County in 2010.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Miscik served as minor-league field coordinator for the Cincinnati Reds in 2005. He held the same position with the Texas Rangers from 1997-2002 and served as the team's player development coordinator from 2003-04.

Miscik also managed in the Rangers organization at Class-A Charlotte in 2000, where he led the team to a 58-43 record after taking over on May 15.

Prior to his tenure with the Rangers, Miscik spent six seasons with the Baltimore Orioles as manager at four different affiliates, including Class-A Kane County (1991), Class-A Frederick (1992), Triple-A Rochester (1993-94) and Double-A Bowie (1995-96). He began his coaching career with the Orioles as Class-A Frederick's hitting coach in 1990.

The former infielder spent nine years in the Pittsburgh Pirates (1980-86) and California Angels (1987-88) systems.

Bob resides in Venice, Florida, with his daughter, Natalie.

PITCHING COORDINATOR

MARK DEWEY

Mark Dewey, 55, enters his eighth season in the organization and second as pitching coordinator, sharing the role with Jake McKinley. He spent the previous four seasons as the organization's assistant pitching coordinator after serving as pitching coach at Class-A Brevard County from 2012-13.

Before joining the Brewers organization, Dewey spent two seasons as pitching coach for the independent Washington Wild Things. Under his guidance, Washington's staff led the Frontier League in ERA (3.62) in 2011. He also served as pitching coach at Emory & Henry College from 2009-11.

Dewey was drafted by the San Francisco Giants in the 23rd round of the 1987 First-Year Player Draft. He spent parts of six seasons in the Major Leagues with the Giants (1990, '95-96), New York Mets (1992) and Pittsburgh Pirates (1993-94). In 205 career relief appearances, he went 12-7 with a 3.65 ERA. He tied for third in the National League in appearances (78) in 1996, his final season in the majors.

Dewey returned to pitching in the winter of 2000-01 (November-January) as a pitcher/pitching coach in an Australian league that was organized by former Brewers catcher David Nilsson. His team won the Winter League championship. He later made 11 relief appearances with Triple-A Nashville in 2001 until a back injury ended his attempt to return to the majors.

Dewey served as a coach with the Rookie Kingsport Mets in 2000 and 2002 and spent time as a pitcher/bullpen coach with the independent Aiken Foxhounds in 2007.

In 1995, Dewey was inducted into the Athletic Hall of Fame by his alma mater, Grand Valley State University. He was also honored with induction into the Grand Rapids Sports Hall of Fame in 2011.

A native of Grand Rapids, Michigan, Dewey founded and pastored a church from 2003-08. During that time, he also served as the local high school's head coach.

Mark and his wife, Monique, have 14 children and reside in Meadowview, Virginia.

PITCHING COORDINATOR/SKILL ACQUISITION

JAKE McKINLEY

Jake McKinley, 34, joins the Brewers as pitching coordinator. He spent the 2018 season as head coach at William Jessup University, where he was named Golden State Athletic Conference Coach of the Year after leading the Warriors to their first conference title.

McKinley also served as head coach at Menlo College from 2014-17, where he had four of his players drafted, including Brewers prospect Lucas Erceg. In 2016, he was recognized as MLB Scouts Northern California College Coach of the Year.

McKinley started his coaching career as an assistant coach at Bethany University in 2007. He has also spent time as an assistant coach at Campbellsville University (2007-09) and at California State University, Sacramento (2010-13). Additionally, he served as pitching coach at West Valley College from 2009-10.

McKinley earned his bachelor's degree in speech communications from Bethany University in 2006 and his master's degree in social science from Campbellsville University in 2009.

Jake resides in Scottsdale, Arizona.

OUTFIELD AND BASERUNNING COORDINATOR

QUINTIN BERRY

Quintin Berry, 34, joins the Brewers organization as outfield and baserunning coordinator.

Berry played 13 seasons of professional baseball in the Philadelphia Phillies (2006-10), San Diego Padres (2010), Cincinnati Reds (2011), Detroit Tigers (2012-13), Boston Red Sox (2013, '15), Kansas City Royals (2013), Baltimore Orioles (2014), Chicago Cubs (2015), Los Angeles Angels (2016), Toronto Blue Jays (2016), Minnesota Twins (2017), Brewers (2017-18) and New York Yankees (2018) systems. He won a World Series with Boston in 2013.

Berry was drafted by the Phillies in the fifth round of the 2006 First-Year Player Draft. In parts of five seasons in the majors with Detroit (2012), Boston (2013), Baltimore (2014), Chicago-NL (2015) and Milwaukee (2017), he batted .262 with 29 stolen bases in 132 games. He recorded a career .989 fielding percentage, committing just a pair of errors in 109 games in the outfield.

Quintin, his wife, Priscilla, their son, Kameron, and their daughter, Kamila, reside in San Diego, California.

PLAYER/PITCHER OF THE YEAR

2018 MINOR LEAGUE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Corey Ray

Position: Outfielder
Born: 9/22/94 in Chicago, IL
Resides: Surprise, AZ
How Acquired: Selected in the first round (fifth overall) of the 2016 First-Year Player Draft

Corey Ray earned Southern League Most Valuable Player honors last season as he batted .239 with 27 HR, 74 RBI and 37 stolen bases in 135 games at Double-A Biloxi. The Southern League midseason and postseason All-Star led the league in at-bats (532), doubles (32 - tied), HR, slugging percentage (.477), extra-base hits (66), total bases (254) and stolen bases. Ray became the first player in Southern League history to lead the league in both home runs and stolen bases. He also ranked among the league leaders in runs (2nd, 86), hits (3rd, 127), RBI (4th, 74) and triples (4th, 7). Ray was selected by Milwaukee in the first round (fifth overall) of the 2016 First-Year Player Draft out of the University of Louisville. He enters the season as the third-best prospect in the organization, according to Baseball America.

2018 MINOR LEAGUE PITCHER OF THE YEAR

Zack Brown

Position: Right-Handed Pitcher
Born: 12/15/94 in Seymour, IN Resides: Seymour, IN
HT: 6-1 WT: 199 Bats: Right Throws: Right
How Acquired: Selected in the fifth round of the 2016 First-Year Player Draft

Zack Brown earned Southern League Most Outstanding Pitcher honors last season as he went 9-1 with a 2.44 ERA in 22 games (21 starts) at Double-A Biloxi. MANAGER

RICK SWEET

Rick Sweet, 66, enters his sixth season in the Brewers organization, all as manager at the Triple-A level. He owns a record of 359-342-1 (.512) at Nashville (2014) and Colorado Springs (2015-18).

The 2019 season marks his 29th as a minor-league manager. Sweet owns a career record of 1,951-1,865-1 (.511). His 1,951 career victories rank second among active minor-league skippers.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Sweet spent nine years in the Cincinnati Reds organization. He managed Triple-A Louisville from 2005-11 and became the all-time winningest manager in franchise history with a 539-465 (.537) record. Sweet was named International League Manager of the Year in 2008 and 2009 and earned Baseball America's Triple-A Manager of the Year honors in 2010. In addition, he was named Pacific Coast League Manager of the Year with the Tucson Toros in the Houston Astros organization in 1994.

Sweet previously managed in the Seattle Mariners (1987-88), Astros (1989-95), New York Mets (1997), Montreal Expos (1998, 2000), San Diego Padres (2001-03) and Detroit Tigers (2004) minor-league systems. He also served as first base coach with the Astros in 1996 and as field coordinator with the Expos from 1999-2000.

The former catcher had a nine-year playing career (1975-83), including time in the majors with San Diego (1978), New York-NL (1982) and Seattle (1982-83).

Rick and his wife, Kimberly, reside in Goodyear, Arizona with their daughter, Mary, and their son, Seth.

PITCHING COACH

FRED DABNEY

Fred Dabney, 51, begins his 16th season as a coach in the organization.

He has coached at Double-A Huntsville (2004), Class-A Brevard County (2005-11), Triple-A Nashville (2012-14) and Triple-A Colorado Springs (2015-18). In 2015, he served as pitching coach for the Pacific Coast League in the Triple-A All-Star Game.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Dabney spent five seasons as a pitching coach in the Texas Rangers organization with the Rookie Gulf Coast League Rangers (1999), Class-A Savannah (2000), Class-A Charlotte (2001-02) and Class-A Stockton (2003).

Dabney pitched nine seasons in the minors in the Chicago White Sox (1988-93), Cleveland Indians (1994) and Chicago Cubs systems (1995-96). He finished his playing career in Taiwan in 1997.

Fred and his wife, Inger, reside in Venice, Florida, with their sons, Dane and Tanner.

HITTING COACH

AL LeBOEUF

Al LeBoeuf, 58, enters his 10th season as a coach in the organzation.

He returns to Triple-A after spending the 2018 season with Double-A Biloxi. In 2017, Triple-A Colorado Springs led the Pacific Coast League in batting average (.291) under LeBoeuf.

LeBoeuf has also held coaching roles with Double-A Huntsville (2010-11), Triple-A Nashville (2012) and Class-A Wisconsin (2016). In addition, he served as the hitting advisor at the team's complex in Phoenix and was a player development scout in 2013.

Al, his wife, Laura, and son, Mac, reside in Palm Harbor, Florida.

COACH

NED YOST IV

Ned Yost IV, 36, begins his 12th season as a coach in the organization and his third at the Triple-A level.

Yost spent the previous five seasons as a coach at the organization's Class-A affiliate. Prior to that, he spent four seasons as a coach with Rookie Helena (2008-11).

Yost is the son of former Brewers manager and current Royals skipper, Ned Yost. He played in the Brewers system as an infielder for three seasons (2005-07) after signing as a non-drafted free agent out of the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh in 2005.

Ned, his wife, Sandra, and their daughters, Amberlin and Isla, reside in LaGrange, Georgia.

MANAGER

MIKE GUERRERO

Mike Guerrero, 51, begins his 24th season in the Brewers organization and fourth as manager at Double-A Biloxi.

This will be Guerrero's 22nd season overall as a minor-league manager. He owns a career record of 1,177-1,018 (.536), including 224-192 (.538) at Biloxi. In 2018, he led the Shuckers to a Southern League-best 81 wins to earn league Manager of the Year honors. The team captured both the first- and second-half South Division titles.

Guerrero began his coaching career in the Toronto Blue Jays organization in 1995, managing the team's Rookie DSL affiliate and going 44-24 (.647). In 1996, he joined the Brewers organization as manager of the DSL Brewers, spending seven seasons there. The team owned a record of 307-190 (.618), including five playoff appearances, and won the DSL championship in 2001. He then spent one season (2003) as the hitting coach at Class-A Beloit.

Guerrero went on to manage at Rookie Arizona from 2004-05 (46-66, .411), Class-A West Virginia from 2006-07 (156-116, .574), Class-A Brevard County from 2008-09 (145-120, .547), Double-A Huntsville from 2010-11 (131-146, .473) and Triple-A Nashville from 2012-13 (124-164, .431).

In 2013, Guerrero earned the Mike Coolbaugh Award, presented to an individual who has shown an outstanding baseball work ethic, knowledge of the game and skill in mentoring young players on the field. He served as first base coach with Milwaukee from 2014-15.

The former infielder spent nine seasons in the Brewers (1987-92, '94-95) and Kansas City Royals (1993) organizations.

Guerrero's father, Epy, was a renowned Major League scout in the Dominican Republic while his brother, Sandy, also coached in the Brewers organization.

Mike and his wife, Larissa, reside in Melbourne, Florida, with their two sons, Michael and Daniel.

PITCHING COACH

BOB MILACKI

Bob Milacki, 54, enters his 19th season as a coach and second in the Brewers organization. He was the pitching coach at Class-A Carolina last season.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Milacki spent three seasons (2015-17) as pitching coach at Triple-A Syracuse in the Washington Nationals organization. He also served as a coach in the Pittsburgh Pirates (2001-08) and Philadelphia Phillies (2009-14) systems. With the Pirates, he coached at Class-A Hickory (2001, '03-04), Double-A Altoona (2002) and Class-A Lynchburg (2005-08). With the Phillies, he coached at Class-A Lakewood (2009), Double-A Reading (2010-12) and Class-A Clearwater (2013-14).

Milacki was selected by the Baltimore Orioles in the second round of the 1983 First-Year Player Draft. In eight seasons in the majors, he went 39-47 with a 4.38 ERA in 143 games with Baltimore (1988-92), Cleveland (1993), Kansas City (1994) and Seattle (1996).

Bob and his wife, Kim, reside in in Lake Havasu City, Arizona with their children, Brittany, Ashlee and Bobby.

COACH

CHUCKIE CAUFIELD

Chuckie Caufield, 35, is in his seventh season as a coach in the organization and third at the Double-A level. He also coached at Rookie Helena (2013) and Class-A Wisconsin (2014-16).

Caufield was drafted by the Brewers in the 39th round of the 2006 First-Year Player Draft out of the University of Oklahoma. The former outfielder spent six seasons in the Brewers system (2006-11).

Chuckie, his wife, Lori, their son, Brayden, and their daughter, Avery, reside in Prosper, Texas.

HITTING COACH

DANNY SANTIN

Danny Santin, 34, joins the Brewers organization after spending the previous five seasons in the Miami Marlins system.

Santin spent 2018 as the hitting coach for Class-A Jupiter and served the same role for the Gulf Coast League Marlins from 2014-17.

The former catcher was selected by the Seattle Mariners in the 23rd round of the 2003 First-Year Player Draft and spent four seasons in the minors with Seattle (2004-07) and Miami (2007).

A Miami native, Danny still resides there with his wife, Leanne, their son, Anthony, and their daughter, Savannah.

MANAGER

JOE AYRAULT

Joe Ayrault, 47, enters his 10th season as a manager in the Brewers organization and third at Class-A Carolina, where he is 138-138 (.500). Ayrault has managed the last seven seasons at the Class-A level, going 435-517 (.457), including five seasons (2012-16) at Brevard County (297-379, .439). He is 701-817 (.462) overall as a manager.

Prior to his run at the Class-A level, Ayrault spent two seasons (2010-11) at Rookie Helena, going 71-80 (.470). He led Helena to a Pioneer League championship in 2010.

Ayrault spent six seasons (2004-09) in the Cincinnati Reds organization, including three (2007-09) as manager at Class-A Sarasota, where he went 195-220 (.470). He also served as Sarasota's hitting coach in 2006 and handled the same duties for the Rookie Gulf Coast League Reds from 2004-05.

Ayrault spent three seasons as a coach in the Texas Rangers organization with the Rookie GCL Rangers (2001), Class-A Savannah (2002) and Class-A Stockton (2003).

The former catcher was selected by the Atlanta Braves in the fifth round of the 1990 First-Year Player Draft and spent his entire playing career in the organization (1990-97). He reached the majors in 1996, playing in seven games and making the postseason roster that year.

Joe, his wife, Kelly, and their two children, Haley and Kole, reside in Sarasota, Florida.

PITCHING COACH

CAM CASTRO

Cam Castro, 28, joins the organization after spending the previous two years as head coach at Lake Erie College.

Castro has also held coaching roles with Defiance College (2012-15) and Augustana University (2016). In addition, he worked as a trainer at Driveline Baseball, an advanced pitching research company in Seattle, from 2015-16 and spent the summers of 2014-15 as the first base/bullpen coach with the Lakeshore Chinooks.

Castro earned his bachelor's degree from Lake Erie College in 2012 and his master's degree from Defiance College in 2014.

Cam and his fiancé, Mallory, reside in Willoughby, Ohio.

COACH

FIDEL PEÑA

Fidel Peña, 27, begins his third year in the Brewers organization and first as a coach with the Mudcats. He spent the previous two seasons as a coach at Class-A Wisconsin.

Peña played eight seasons in the minors in the Arizona Diamondbacks (2009-15) and Brewers (2016) systems.

The Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic native still resides there with his daughter, Brianna.

HITTING COACH

BOBBY BELL

Bobby Bell, 55, begins his second season in the Brewers organization as the Mudcats' hitting coach.

Bell spent the previous five years as a private hitting instructor. He coached in the Miami Marlins system from 2009-13, serving roles as hitting coach at Class-A Greensboro (2009), Class-A Jupiter (2010) and with the Gulf Coast League Marlins (2011-13). Prior to joining the Marlins organization, he spent four years as a hitting coach in the Frontier and Northern Leagues.

Bell played three minor-league seasons in the California Angels system (1986-88). He played collegiately at Mesa State College and Pima Community College.

Bobby resides in Palm Beach Gardens, Florida. He has one daughter, Bobbi, and four sons, Brandon, Keaton, Zion and Kai.

Erickson led the Timber Rattlers to the Midwest League championship in 2012 and additional playoff appearances in 2014 and 2016. In 2013, he managed the Western Division at the Midwest League All-Star Game. Prior to being named manager in 2011, he spent two seasons as a coach with the Timber Rattlers (2009-10).

The former infielder was selected by the Florida Marlins in the seventh round of the 1997 First-Year Player Draft. He played 11 seasons (1997-2007) in the minors with the Marlins (1997-2003, '05), Brewers (2004-05) and Arizona Diamondbacks (2006-07). Erickson reached the majors in 2004 with Milwaukee and collected his only hit off Hall of Famer Greg Maddux on 7/17/04 at Wrigley Field.

Erickson played collegiately at the University of Arkansas. The Appleton, Wisconsin native still resides there with his wife, Julie, their son, Maddox, and two daughters, Aubrie and Emma.

PITCHING COACH

JIM HENDERSON

Jim Henderson, 36, begins his second season in the Brewers organization and first as pitching coach at Wisconsin. He spent 2018 as a bullpen coach with the Helena Brewers and also assisted with the professional scouting department.

Henderson was selected by the Montreal Expos in the 26th round of the 2003 First-Year Player Draft. He played 14 professional seasons with the Expos/Washington Nationals (2003-06), Chicago Cubs (2007-08), Brewers (2009-15) and New York Mets (2016). He pitched four seasons in the majors with the Brewers (2012-14) and Mets (2016), combining to go 10-11 with a 3.61 ERA and 31 saves in 155 appearances. He led Milwaukee in saves (28) in 2013.

Henderson also made appearances on the Canadian team in the 2011 Pan American Games and in the World Baseball Classic in 2013 and 2017.

Henderson pitched collegiately at Midland College (2000-02) and Tennessee Wesleyan University (2003), where he graduated prior to being drafted by the Expos.

Jim and his wife, Erica, reside in Glendale, Arizona.

HITTING COACH

DAVE JOPPIE

Dave Joppie, 53, enters his third year in the organization and first with the Timber Rattlers. Joppie also served as hitting coach at Class-A Carolina in 2017 and Triple-A Colorado Springs in 2018. This will be his 24th year in professional baseball.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Joppie spent 10 years in the Boston Red Sox organization (2006-15), coaching at Class-A Wilmington (2006), Class-A Lancaster (2007), Double-A Portland (2008-11, 2015) and Triple-A Pawtucket (2013-14). Under Joppie's guidance, Lancaster set all-time California League records in runs (1,081) and home runs (217) in 2007. Following the 2012 season, he was selected to coach the Surprise Saguaros in the Arizona Fall League.

Joppie also spent 11 seasons in the Oakland Athletics system (1995-2005), including managing Class-A Kane County from 2004-05. He was named Midwest League Manager of the Year as well as Baseball America's Class-A Minor League Manager of the Year in 2004. He also served as hitting instructor at Double-A Huntsville (1995-96, '98), Class-A Modesto (1997), Class-A Visalia (1999) and Double-A Midland (2001-03) and managed Class-A Vancouver in 2000.

Dave, his wife, Jennifer, and their son, Casey, reside in Grand Rapids, Michigan.

MANAGER

RAFAEL NEDA

Rafael Neda, 30, begins his third season as manager in Arizona. He owns a 79-85 (.482) career managerial record.

Neda spent six seasons as a catcher in the Brewers organization after being selected in the 10th round of the 2010 First-Year Player Draft out of the University of New Mexico. He retired as a player following the 2016 season.

Rafael resides in Obregon, Mexico.

PITCHING COACH

HIRAM BURGOS

Hiram Burgos, 31, begins his second season in the Brewers organization as pitching coach in Arizona.

Burgos was selected by the Brewers in the sixth round of the 2009 First-Year Player Draft. He played nine seasons (2009-17) in the organization, reaching the majors in 2013. He was named Brewers Minor League Pitcher of the Year in 2012 after going 10-4 with a 1.95 ERA in 28 games (27 starts) between Class-A Brevard County, Double-A Huntsville and Triple-A Nashville.

Hiram and his daughter, Pamela, reside in Cayey, Puerto Rico.

HITTING COACH

BRENTON DEL CHIARO

Brenton Del Chiaro, 39, begins his third year in the Brewers organization in his current role.

He spent the previous nine years with the Los Angeles Angels organization. Del Chiaro began his coaching career in 2008 at Rookie Orem. From 2009-10, he served as the hitting coach at Class-A Cedar Rapids, where he was promoted to manager in 2011. He then went on to manage the Rookie Arizona Angels in 2012 before joining Inland Empire as hitting coach from 2013-15. In 2016, Del Chiaro was the hitting coach at Double-A Arkansas.

The former catcher was selected by the Angels in the 41st round of the 2001 First-Year Player Draft out of the University of Kansas. He went on to play seven seasons in the Angels organization (2001-07).

After retiring as a player, Del Chiaro served as bullpen catcher on the Angels' big league staff in 2007.

Brenton, his wife, Lindsay, their son, Beckett, and their daughter, Cora, reside in Phoenix, Arizona.

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR/
SPECIAL INSTRUCTOR

TONY DIGGS

Tony Diggs, 51, enters his 16th season in the Brewers organization and first as a special instructor in Arizona, assisting both Arizona League squads.

In addition to various coaching roles, Diggs spent the previous 13 seasons as assistant to the director of staff and player development, assisting with day-to-day administration duties in Phoenix. From 2016-18, he also served as outfield and baserunning coordinator.

Diggs managed nine seasons in the minors, including stints with Rookie Arizona from 2008-12 and 2016 (132-200, .398) and with Rookie Helena from 2013-15 (102-124, .451). In 2010, he was named Arizona League Manager of the Year after leading the team to a 34-22 record and the Arizona League championship. Diggs was also named Pioneer League Manager of the Year in 2013, when Helena went 43-33 and finished one win away from claiming the Pioneer League title. He owns a career record of 234-324 (.419).

Diggs has also served as a hitting coach in the organization at Class-A Beloit (2004) and Class-A Brevard County (2005).

Prior to joining the Brewers, Diggs was a minor-league hitting coach for the St. Louis Cardinals (1998-99, 2002-03). He also spent two years as director of player development/Major League Baseball consultant with the International Baseball League of Australia, and was a consultant for Team Australia in the 2000 Olympics.

Diggs was selected by the Brewers in the sixth round of the 1989 First-Year Player Draft and played eight seasons in the minors with Milwaukee (1989-93) and St. Louis (1994-96).

Tony, his wife, Kim, and children, Amber, A.J., Aaron, Andrew, Aidan, Alaina and Addison, reside in Goodyear, Arizona.

MANAGER

LIU RODRÍGUEZ

Liu Rodríguez, 42, enters his sixth season in the Brewers organization and first as manager.

Rodríguez spent the 2016-18 seasons as a coach at Rookie Helena, including serving as hitting coach last season. He has also coached at Rookie Arizona (2014) and Class-A Wisconsin (2015).

Rodríguez, a former middle infielder, played seven seasons in the Chicago White Sox organization (1995-2001). He made his Major League debut and played 39 games with the White Sox in 1999. His only career home run came on 7/1/99 at Kansas City.

Rodriguez also played in Mexico (2002, '04-05), Italy (2003, '13) and with independent teams in the Golden Baseball League (2008-09) and Atlantic League (2006, '09-12).

Liu resides in Goodyear, Arizona.

PITCHING COACH

STEVE CLINE

Steve Cline, 66, begins his 39th season as a pitching coach in the minor leagues and his 24th with the Brewers. He spent the previous two seasons as pitching coach at Class-A Wisconsin.

Cline started his coaching career in 1981 in the San Francisco Giants organization. He spent time as a coach at every level in the Giants organization and also served as a roving instructor in 1986.

Cline began his time in the Brewers organization as pitching coach at Rookie Ogden (1996-2000). He then spent 16 seasons in the same role with Rookie Arizona from 2001-16. Cline was also previously responsible for the rehab of the organization's pitchers, overseeing their throwing progression at the Phoenix complex throughout the offseason.

Prior to his coaching experience, Cline played seven minor-league seasons in the Giants organization (1974-80, '82). He was selected by San Francisco in the sixth round of the 1974 First-Year Player Draft.

Cline played collegiate baseball at Hagerstown Junior College (1970-72) and Clemson University (1972-74).

Steve and his wife, Julie, reside in Phoenix, Arizona along with their children and grandchildren.

HITTING COACH

BOBBY SPAIN

Bobby Spain, 33, joins the Brewers organization after spending the previous three seasons as hitting coach with the independent Gary SouthShore RailCats.

Spain played four pro seasons after being selected by the Pittsburgh Pirates in the 19th round of the 2007 First-Year Player Draft. He played three seasons (2007-09) in the Pirates system before finishing his playing career with the Traverse City Beach Bums of the independent Frontier League in 2010.

After retiring as a player in 2010, Spain finished his bachelor's degree in business administration at Oklahoma City University in 2012. He began his coaching career working with hitters and infielders as an assistant coach at Oklahoma City in 2014 and remained in the role for the following season. Spain also spent the 2016-17 offseasons volunteering his time for his alma mater.

Bobby resides in Phoenix, Arizona.

2019

HISTORY AND RECORDS

MILWAUKEE BREWERS

IMPORTANT DATES AND MOMENTS

1967

- Pacific Northwest Sports, Inc., organized to seek a Major League Baseball franchise, purchases the Triple-A Seattle Angels from the California Angels on October 25 and announces it will operate the franchise in the Pacific Coast League.
- The American League grants Pacific Northwest Sports, Inc. a franchise at its Winter Meetings in Mexico City on December 2..... the team is set to begin play in 1969.

1968

- Marvin Milkes is named the first general manager of the Seattle franchise on February 21.
- Pacific Northwest Sports, Inc. announces that the team will be called the "Seattle Pilots" on March 31.....the moniker was chosen by contest-winner Donald Nelson of Seattle, who picked the name because he felt it denoted leadership and combined the area's heritage on sea and in air.
- The Pilots unveil their team logo on August 18.....the design features gold wings flanking a red ship's wheel which surrounds a white baseball, all trimmed in blue.....the name "Pilots" appears on the "sweet spot" in italicized lower-case letters.

1969

- The Pilots go 64-98 in their only season in the Major Leagues, finishing in last place in the American League West.
- The Pilots play their first game ever on April 8 at California and win, 4-3, scoring all four runs in the top of the first inning.

1970

- Thanks to the dedicated efforts of Milwaukee Brewers, Inc., an organization formed by Allan H. "Bud" Selig and Edmund Fitzgerald, the Seattle Pilots are acquired on April 1.....the team is renamed the "Milwaukee Brewers" as a tribute to the city's long association with the brewing industry and is to be managed by Dave Bristol.

LOGO HISTORY

SEATTLE PILOTS (1969)

The Seattle Pilots used this logo for one season before moving to Milwaukee and becoming the Brewers.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS (1970-1977)

The Barrelman logo was the first identity used by the Brewers. It was first used by the original American Association Brewers in the 1940s.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS (1978-1993)

The “ball-in-glove” logo was introduced in 1978 after a contest which was open to the public drew more than 2,000 entries. An art history student at UW-Eau Claire, Tom Meindel, designed the logo that went on to be the winner. The design of the logo was meant to be recognizable on items as small as a button and as large as a billboard.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS (1994-1999)

As the Brewers celebrated their 25th anniversary in Milwaukee, they introduced a new look. Green was incorporated as a color for the first time in franchise history. The logo resembled an industrial stamp, paying homage to Milwaukee’s industrial history, and gave the team a modern yet old-fashioned look.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS (2000-2017)

This logo was introduced during the final season at County Stadium, giving the team a fresh look heading into Miller Park. The classic yet contemporary look was created by McDill Design of Milwaukee along with Major League Baseball Creative Services. The barley in the logo speaks to the heritage of the "Brewers" name that has been in Milwaukee baseball since 1901.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS (2018-PRESENT)

In 2018, the team officially began using the "M" logo as its primary mark. The logo was first introduced in 2000 as part of the complete redesign of the team's artwork. Like the team's previous primary logo, the barley in the logo speaks to the heritage of the "Brewers" name that has been in Milwaukee baseball since 1901.

1981 AMERICAN LEAGUE EAST DIVISION SERIES - MILWAUKEE vs. NEW YORK

For the first time in Major League history, a divisional playoff series was played because of the split season. In the American League East, New York, winners of the first half, confronted Milwaukee, winners of the second half. It was the 34th time that the Yankees participated in the postseason, while it marked the first appearance in playoff competition for the Brewers. New York took the best-of-five series, three games to two, and swept three games from Oakland to earn the American League championship. The Yankees lost to the National League champion Los Angeles Dodgers, four games to two, in the 78th World Series.

ADMISSION TO STADIUM

Enter through the south dock, located in the right-field corner on the Service Level at Miller Park. Credentials are available for pickup six hours prior to game time. Baseball Writers Association of America (BBWAA) cards or working credentials issued by Milwaukee Brewers Media Relations or Major League Baseball are required for admittance. No other credential will be honored. All bags will be checked by security upon entrance to the ballpark.

BOB BETTS PRESS BOX

The Bob Betts Press Box is located on the Loge Level behind home plate. The main press box, as well as the adjacent radio and television booths, have rolling windows that are either entirely open or entirely closed. There are seven radio and television booths that are reserved for both home and visiting announcers. A quiet work room is located immediately within the press box and should be used during postgame by radio stringers to send audio. An elevator directly behind the press box will transport media to the Service Level. This elevator is reserved for media and first aid only immediately after the game. The press box is equipped for wireless internet access. Information on accessing the wireless network is posted throughout the press box. The press box is a working area and should be treated as such. The press box is closed to scouts during the game.

CLUBHOUSES

The home clubhouse is located on the Service Level along the first-base side. The visiting clubhouse is located on the Service Level along the third-base side. Only properly credentialed media are allowed in the clubhouses. Media is allowed access beginning 3 1/2 hours prior to game time. The clubhouse closes when team batting practice begins and will remain closed through the game. The training room, X-ray room, kitchen, weight room and video room are all off limits to media. Still photographers are not allowed in the clubhouses without prior approval from the media relations staff. Media are not allowed to use cell phones in the clubhouse.

FIELD

Access to the playing field is available through the runways leading from the respective clubhouses or through the door to the right of the visitor's clubhouse. Only properly credentialed media are allowed on the field. Live or direct transmissions are permitted from the field until 30 minutes prior to game time. The grounds crew and Media Relations Department politely ask media to avoid standing on the grass.

MEDIA INTERVIEW ROOM

The media interview room, located across from the home clubhouse, is a classroom-style facility that features telephone, internet and power service. The room seats 93 media members and contains mult boxes for radio and television usage.

MEDIA RELATIONS OFFICES

The media relations offices are located in the press box at Miller Park. On non-game days, media can visit the offices by going to the main office entrance in the right-field corner of Miller Park and having the receptionist call up to the Media Relations Department.

PARKING

To access the parking area, take the Miller Park Way freeway exit off Interstate 94. The media parking area is located in the Logan Lot, just south of the south dock entrance. Media members with season credentials will receive a season parking pass; media members with single-game credentials will be placed on a media list and should check in with a parking attendant at the lot entrance. Parking is extremely limited and available on a first-come, first-served basis. The Logan Lot is for working media only. Those abusing this policy will have their parking privileges and credentials revoked. Media are asked to respect their colleagues by only using their season parking passes while working games.

PHOTOGRAPHER INFORMATION

Photo wells are located on the first and third-base sides on the field near the dugouts as well as behind home plate. There are also two photo locations located on the Club Level near sections 320 and 339. Dark room facilities are located on the Service Level across from the home clubhouse. Internet lines are available for photographers to transmit their photographs electronically. Wireless internet is also available. Please see connection information posted in the press box.

POSTGAME ACCESS

By rule, clubhouses open no later than 10 minutes after the conclusion of the game. At that time, the home manager will be made available in the media interview room. Only properly credentialed media are allowed access. The elevator behind the press box is reserved for media immediately following the conclusion of the game.

PRESS HOSPITALITY AND MEALS

Press hospitality is open to those with a BBWAA card or applicable credentials issued by the Milwaukee Brewers Media Relations Department or Major League Baseball. Meals will be served beginning 2 1/2 hours prior to game time and full meal service will end 30 minutes after the first pitch. A $10 charge is levied for a full meal. Meal tickets can be purchased at the main entrance to the press box. Soda, frozen yogurt and milkshakes are complimentary. The media dining room is located behind the main press box and broadcast booths on the Loge Level. A daily menu is posted at the entrance of the press box.

TELEVISION CREWS

Space to shoot game highlights is available upon request. NO LIVE TRANSMISSION is allowed during games inside Miller Park. Additional game highlights are available through the Miller Park Scoreboard Department.

WORKING CREDENTIALS

Credentials will be issued only to legitimate news-gathering agencies, subject to the discretion of the Milwaukee Brewers Media Relations Department, and must be requested via the MLB credentialing website: www.credentials.mlb.com. All single-game credential requests must be made via the MLB credentialing website at least 24 hours in advance of the game or their fulfillment cannot be assured. Credentials should be displayed at all times and will be checked by stadium security. Daily credentials can be picked up at the south dock at Miller Park no earlier than six hours prior to game time. Under no circumstances should credentials be transferred from person to person or be used by media who are not working the game. Violation of this policy will result in revocation of credentials.

BOB UECKER

Entering his 49th season as a broadcaster for his hometown team, calling games on 620 WTMJ and the Brewers Radio Network, Bob Uecker celebrates his 64th year in baseball.

Uecker earned the prestigious Ford C. Frick Award in 2003 and will forever be recognized in Baseball's Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, New York. On July 27, 2003, he made one of the most memorable speeches in Hall of Fame history as he left his audience, including former President George H.W. Bush, in tears from laughter.

Also in 2003, Uecker became a member of the Brewers Walk of Fame, which is located near home plate outside Miller Park. In 2012, he was inducted into the National Association of Broadcasters (NAB) Broadcasting Hall of Fame.

On August 31, 2012, Uecker was given a very special honor as a statue bearing his likeness was dedicated outside Miller Park. The ceremony was attended by celebrities, current and former players, family and friends. Uecker's statue joined those previously dedicated to fellow Hall of Famers Hank Aaron, Robin Yount and Commissioner Emeritus Allan H. "Bud" Selig.

On April 25, 2014, a second statue was dedicated in Uecker's honor, this one in the last row of the "Uecker Seats" on Miller Park's Terrace Level. The statue commemorates Uecker's Miller Lite commercials in which he famously delivered the often repeated line, "I must be in the front row!" The statue allows fans a special photo opportunity. Also in 2014, Uecker was commissioned into the Brewers Wall of Honor inaugural class.

Known across the country as "Mr. Baseball," Uecker is highly respected in the industry. In 2001, he was inducted into the Radio Hall of Fame, where he joined such baseball broadcasting luminaries as Vin Scully, Mel Allen, Red Barber, Ernie Harwell and Jack Brickhouse, as well as other American icons such as Bob Hope, Jack Benny, Edward R. Murrow and Orson Welles. In 2011, he was inducted into the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association Hall of Fame.

Uecker has been named Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year five times during his career and was inducted into the Wisconsin Sports Hall of Fame in 1998. Also, for his efforts, he was inducted into the Wisconsin Performing Artists Hall of Fame in 1993, which was established in 1983 to honor nationally and internationally known performing artists with Wisconsin ties. In 1994, Uecker was elected to the Wisconsin Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame. In January 1995, he earned the Big B.A.T. Award from the Baseball Assistance Team at a dinner in New York City for his continuing support of former Major League players who are in need of assistance.

Uecker's big break can be traced to a 1969 visit with Al Hirt, a renowned jazz trumpeter from New Orleans. Hirt opened a small nightclub in Atlanta and asked Uecker to come on stage. Hirt was so impressed that he arranged an appearance for Uecker on The Tonight Show, starring Johnny Carson. Uecker became one of Carson's favorite guests, making 100+ appearances before Carson retired in 1992. He also made appearances on The Mike Douglas and Merv Griffin Shows, Late Night with David Letterman and as guest host on Saturday Night Live.

Uecker became a national celebrity, and the ABC Network took advantage of his popularity. He made appearances on The Superstars and The Midnight Special, which opened the door for more high-profile appearances.

A versatile talent, Uecker's credits go far beyond guest appearances and play-by-play. In 1985, he launched a television acting career as one of the stars of ABC's sitcom Mr. Belvedere, which put 122 episodes into syndication. He also hosted two syndicated television shows, Bob Uecker's Wacky World of Sports and Bob Uecker's War of the Stars.

Uecker was one of the Miller Lite All-Stars in popular commercials for the beer during the 1980s. He was also cast as a radio announcer in the movie Major League, which was filmed at County Stadium, and Major League II. Uecker even made appearances on the pro wrestling circuit, serving as a host at WrestleMania III and WrestleMania IV, earning him a spot in the WWE Hall of Fame in 2010.

Uecker's experience broadcasting Brewers games both on radio and television gained him national recognition as he went on to serve as color commentator for ABC Sports coverage of Monday Night Baseball, the League Championship Series and World Series.

Uecker's accomplishments are not limited to the electronic medium. He authored a book entitled Catcher in the Wry, a humorous look back on the years he spent as a catcher with the Milwaukee/Atlanta Braves, St. Louis Cardinals and Philadelphia Phillies during six seasons in the Major Leagues. One of his career highlights as a player came in 1964 when he was a member of the world champion St. Louis Cardinals.

Despite his national attention and success, Uecker never forgot his roots. In 2015, he was honored with the Lombardi Foundation's Award of Excellence for his role in helping raise funds and awareness for cancer research. His philanthropic efforts have also benefitted several local organizations, including the United Performing Arts Fund, the Midwest Athletes Against Childhood Cancer Fund, the Milwaukee Symphony, the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Milwaukee and Big Brothers/Big Sisters.

In addition, Uecker is an advocate for organizations that battle cystic fibrosis and heart disease, and is involved with the Wisconsin Department of Tourism and the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

JEFF LEVERING

Jeff Levering is entering his fifth season with the Brewers after joining the organization in January 2015.

In addition to calling play-by-play on 620 WTMJ, Levering has also provided content through the Club's social media platforms as the creator of a podcast called Brewers on Tap and the Minor Details blog, featuring information on the team's minor-league system.

During each of the past four offseasons, Levering has served as a play-by-play announcer for college basketball games on FOX Sports and the Big Ten Network, in addition to calling college football games.

Levering previously spent two seasons (2013-14) as the lead broadcaster of the Triple-A Pawtucket Red Sox. He worked for three seasons (2010-12) as the radio voice and manager of public relations for the Double-A Springfield Cardinals. Prior to arriving in Springfield, he spent three seasons (2007-09) as director of broadcasting/media relations for the Class-A Rancho Cucamonga Quakes.

Levering began his professional broadcasting career in 2005 as a field reporter and associate producer for FOX Sports West/Prime Ticket in Los Angeles, covering the Angels, Lakers and UCLA.

Levering received his bachelor's degree in broadcast journalism from Chapman University in Orange, California, where he also played baseball all four years. He was the starting designated hitter on the 2003 D-III national championship team.

Jeff and his wife, Ashley, have two children, son, Brock, and daughter, Logan. Levering tweets from @JLevering4.

LANE GRINDLE

Lane Grindle begins his fourth season with the Brewers after joining the radio broadcast team in February 2016. Throughout the season, he calls games with Jeff Levering during games missed by Hall of Famer Bob Uecker.

In addition to his broadcasting responsibilities, Grindle interviews players and team executives for podcasts and writes features for the Minor Details blog. He also handled public address announcements at Miller Park on a fill-in basis during the Brewers' postseason run last season.

Grindle joined the Brewers following 10 seasons (2006-15) behind the microphone for University of Nebraska baseball radio broadcasts on the Husker Sports Network. He spent his first two seasons as the Cornhuskers' pre/postgame host prior to becoming the play-by-play announcer in 2008. Grindle also held positions as a pregame host and sideline announcer for Nebraska football (2007-15) and hosted a television show for Nebraska basketball (2008-13).

Grindle graduated from the University of South Dakota in 2004 with a degree in contemporary media and journalism, and minored in history. He and his wife, Ali, have three daughters, Josie, Payton and Harper, and a son named Luke. They reside in Menomonee Falls, Wisconsin.

Fans can follow Grindle on Twitter (@lanegrindle).

TELEVISION ANNOUNCERS

BRIAN ANDERSON

Brian Anderson begins his 13th season as a Major League broadcaster after being named Brewers play-by-play announcer on January 10, 2007.

Anderson is a three-time recipient of the Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year Award, presented by the National Sports Media Association (2013, 2014 and 2017).

In addition to his position on Brewers telecasts, Anderson has been tabbed to do play-by-play for TBS's coverage of the postseason for the past 11 seasons. Notable events in which he has been behind the mic include Roy Halladay's historic no-hitter for the Philadelphia Phillies in Game 1 of the 2010 NLDS vs. Cincinnati and the Brewers-Cardinals NLCS in 2011. Anderson's role with TBS has since increased to include calling play-by-play for Turner Sports' Sunday MLB on TBS package in each of the past nine years. He will continue to call select Sunday national games in 2019.

Outside of baseball, he has covered the NCAA Basketball Tournament for Turner/CBS Sports since 2012, the NBA on TNT since 2014 and the PGA Championship since 2016. He also handles play-by-play duties for college basketball on FOX Sports and the Big Ten Network.

Anderson joined the Brewers from the Golf Channel, where he was a play-by-play announcer from 2003-06. In his role there, he served as a host for a variety of the network's events, including the PGA Tour and Nationwide Tour. Anderson also worked at FOX Sports Southwest, calling NCAA college basketball from 2002-07 and serving as a sideline reporter for the San Antonio Spurs from 1999-2007, where he saw the Spurs win three NBA championships.

From 1998-2000, Anderson handled Minor League and Little League Baseball telecasts for ESPN. He received his start in baseball with the Double-A San Antonio Missions of the Texas League, serving as a radio/television play-by-play announcer from 1994-2003.

Anderson played catcher on the nationally-ranked baseball team at St. Mary's University (Texas) and graduated cum laude from the school in 1993 with a degree in English-communications. His brother, Mike, had a stint in the majors as a pitcher with the Cincinnati Reds (1993) and is currently a special assistant to the general manager with the Texas Rangers.

Brian and his wife, Michele, and daughter, Maddy, reside in Hartland, Wisconsin. He is on Twitter at @BAndersonPxP.

BILL SCHROEDER

Bill Schroeder enters his 25th season as color commentator on Brewers telecasts.

Schroeder began his career behind the microphone in 1995 following a distinguished playing career as a catcher. Among his accomplishments, he was enshrined on the prestigious Brewers Wall of Honor on July 17, 2015. Only Hall of Famer Bob Uecker has broadcast more games in franchise history.

For 15 offseasons, Schroeder has also served as the coordinator of Brewers Fantasy Camp. The camp is always a hit, selling out each year at the Brewers' Spring Training home in Phoenix, Arizona.

Schroeder spent eight seasons (1983-90) in the majors with the Brewers and California Angels, posting a career-best .332 batting average in 1987. He caught Juan Nieves's no-hitter on April 15, 1987 at Baltimore in the midst of the Brewers' Major League record-tying 13-0 start. In addition, he clubbed a career-high 14 home runs and had 42 RBI in a backup role that season. Schroeder was traded to the Angels following the 1988 campaign before retiring in 1990.

Born in Baltimore and raised in West Windsor, New Jersey, Schroeder graduated from West Windsor Plainsboro High School, where he earned All-State honors as a junior and senior. He attended Clemson University, leading the Tigers to the Atlantic Coast Conference title in 1978 and 1979.

"Rock" and his wife, Kate, reside in New Berlin, Wisconsin. He has two daughters, Lindsey and Mallory, a son, Billy, and two granddaughters, Madelyn and Presley. The couple also has a miniature dachshund named Rupert.

Schroeder's book, If These Walls Could Talk: Milwaukee Brewers, which was written with Drew Olson, was published in 2016. He tweets from @BrewersFanCamp.

MATT LEPAY

Matt Lepay returns for his sixth season calling play-by-play on the FOX Sports Wisconsin broadcast team after joining the Brewers in January 2014.

Lepay has earned Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year honors nine times, including in 2018. The award is presented by the National Sports Media Association.

Lepay has been the voice of Wisconsin Badgers football since 1994 and the 2018-19 season marks his 31st as the men's basketball play-by-play announcer. In his time with the University of Wisconsin, Lepay has announced five Rose Bowl Games and 21 NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament appearances, including the Badgers' trips to the 2000, 2014 and 2015 Final Four.

Lepay joined WIBA Radio in Madison in 1994 after a stint as sports director at WTSO Radio in Madison. He authored a book entitled Why Not Wisconsin?, which was released in 2012. The book chronicles the Wisconsin football and basketball programs since he arrived in Wisconsin in 1988.

In addition to his play-by-play duties, Lepay handles a number of speaking appearances on behalf of UW Athletics, including host of the weekly Badger Sports Report. He was honored during Camp Randall's 100th Anniversary season in 2017 as a member of Camp Randall 100, a prestigious group that shaped the first century at the home of Badgers football.

A native of Dayton, Ohio, Lepay received his bachelor's degree in journalism from Ohio State University. He and his wife, Linda, reside in Cross Plains, Wisconsin.

Fans can follow Lepay on Twitter at @MattLepay.

CRAIG COSHUN

Craig Coshun begins his 19th season covering the Brewers as a pre/postgame host on FOX Sports Wisconsin telecasts. He performs the same duties for the Milwaukee Bucks of the NBA following the baseball season.

Coshun, who has also worked as a sideline reporter, handles play-by-play duties for several games each season. In addition, he co-hosts the Brewers Extra Innings postgame show on 620 WTMJ Radio.

Coshun is a veteran sportscaster in the state, calling several events for the University of Wisconsin, the Big Ten Network and the ESPN family of networks. He has also called the WIAA state high school football championships.

Coshun and the FOX Sports Wisconsin production team have captured multiple Emmy Awards for their work covering the Brewers and Bucks. He began his television broadcast career in Eau Claire at NBC affiliate WEAU before landing in Madison, where he was the sports director at NBC affiliate WMTV until 2000.

Craig is a graduate of UW-Whitewater. He and his wife, Pam, reside in Verona, Wisconsin, with their sons, John and Jake. Fans can follow Coshun on Twitter at @CraigCoshun.

JERRY AUGUSTINE

Jerry Augustine is in his 12th season as an analyst with FOX Sports Wisconsin.

Augustine played his entire 10-year Major League career (1975-84) with the Brewers after being drafted out of the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse in 1974. In 1976, he was named to the American League All-Rookie Team and was selected by Milwaukee baseball writers as Brewers Rookie of the Year. In June 2014, Augustine was part of the inaugural class of inductees to the Brewers Wall of Honor.

A native of Kewaunee, Wisconsin, Augustine was high school teammates with Jack Novak, who later played in the NFL, and Dale Koehler, who went on to start for the University of Wisconsin men's basketball team for three years.

Following his playing career, Augustine was head coach at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee from 1995-2006, where he compiled a record of 347-297-1. His teams made three appearances in the NCAA Tournament.

Fans can follow Augustine on Twitter at @Jaugie46.

DARIO MELENDEZ

Dario Melendez begins his second season as a reporter and host of Brewers Live on FOX Sports Wisconsin telecasts.

Melendez handles the same responsibilities with the Milwaukee Bucks of the NBA as host of Bucks Live. He also serves as co-host of The Double Team on 97.3 The Game radio with Bob Brainerd.

Before joining FOX Sports Wisconsin, Melendez worked as a sports anchor at NY1 in New York City and on ESPN's SportsCenter in Bristol, Connecticut. He previously was a weekend sports anchor and sports reporter at WISN-TV in Milwaukee and was honored by the Wisconsin Broadcasters Association for Best Sportscast for Larger Market in 2011.

From 2008-10, Melendez was a weekend sports anchor and sports reporter at WINK-TV in Fort Myers, Florida. While there, he received the Associated Press regional award for best sports feature. He also served as talk show co-host for Fox Sports Radio.

Melendez graduated from Sacred Heart University in Fairfield, Connecticut, where he was a wide receiver and quarterback on the football team. He enjoys competing in marathons and other races in his free time.

Dario and his wife, Jen Lada, have a son, Chase, and a daughter, Layla. He is on Twitter at @Dario_Melendez.

SOPHIA MINNAERT

Sophia Minnaert is entering her seventh season as a sideline reporter for Brewers broadcasts on FOX Sports Wisconsin. Last season, she won an Emmy for Outstanding Crafts Achievement for On-Camera Talent - Sports Reporter.

Minnaert was named to the position of broadcast and digital features content director with the Brewers in June 2018. In this role, she produces and hosts digital features in both English and Spanish that are available on Brewers On Tap, a free digital series on the Brewers YouTube channel and Brewers.com.

In addition to her role with the Brewers, Minnaert hosts Inside Marquette Basketball, a bi-weekly TV show with Marquette basketball head coach Steve Wojciechowski. She also handles sideline duties for the WIAA state football championships and worked on Milwaukee Bucks broadcasts.

Prior to joining Brewers television, Minnaert worked for PlayOn! Sports Midwest reporting on high school state championships for FOX Sports Wisconsin, Fox Sports Midwest and CSN Chicago. She also worked as a feature reporter on FOX Sports Wisconsin's Prep Zone.

In November 2013, Minnaert and FOX Sports Wisconsin traveled to the Dominican Republic for the series Baseball in the Dominican Republic. The series earned an Emmy for the Brewers Academy program, and a nomination for Baseball in the Dominican Republic: Jean Segura.

A native of Madison, Wisconsin, Minnaert graduated from Edgewood High School before going on to earn degrees in journalism and Spanish language and literature from Marquette University.

Minnaert can be found on Twitter at @SophiaMinnaert.

MASCOTS

BERNIE BREWER

Perhaps as much a part of Milwaukee's baseball history as the players, Bernie Brewer, the official team mascot, has become a symbol of what is good about being a fan of the Brewers.

THE HISTORY OF BERNIE BREWER

The concept of a team mascot first emerged back in 1970 when the expansion team needed to draw more fans to the ballpark. That year, the original "Bernie Brewer," 69-year-old Milt Mason, camped out in a trailer atop the scoreboard in late June, vowing not to come down until a crowd of at least 40,000 attended a game. A bat day crowd of 44,387 showed up to bring their adopted hero down from his perch on August 16.

The demand for Bernie Brewer grew, and by 1973, he emerged as a character who cheered on the home team from a beer-barreled chalet. He would slide down from his perch into a beer stein following each Brewers home run and victory. Bernie Brewer became a fixture at home games through the organization's powerful years, when homers came with regularity for teams known as "Bambi's Bombers" and "Harvey's Wallbangers."

In 1984, the Brewers rebuilt the bleachers, replacing Bernie's Chalet with a sound tower, sending the mascot into temporary retirement. But, by popular demand in 1993, Bernie returned and has been a fixture at every home game since.

In April 2010, Bernie joined Twitter. He has one of the largest followings among Major League Baseball mascots on the social network. Fans can follow him on Twitter at @Bernie_Brewer.

JOHNSONVILLE FAMOUS RACING SAUSAGES

Legend has it that the Johnsonville Famous Racing Sausages started to take shape in the early 1990s. In their formative years, they were little more than a cartoon running a virtual race every home game on the giant scoreboard in center field at County Stadium.

As the movement began to take shape and a buzz developed about our racing weenies, eventually the Bratwurst (#1), Polish (#2) and Italian (#3) made their debuts out of the left-field corner of County Stadium on select Sundays throughout the season. What started as a fun way to entertain many of the children attending afternoon games became an instant hit. The three sausages added a fourth when Hot Dog (#4) came on board in the middle of the 1990s.

The race grew in popularity among young and old alike. During the 2000 season - the final year of County Stadium - the virtual race was thrown out and the actual sausages began to race every game.

This tradition continued as the Brewers moved across the parking lot to Miller Park in 2001. Running with the Sausages took on a life of its own as having an 'in' with the team might mean the chance to dive into the costume and scurry along the warning track prior to the seventh inning. Hideo Nomo, Pat Meares and Geoff Jenkins are just three of the lucky players to boast "Racing Sausage" among their personal accolades. In 2007, Chorizo (#5) permanently joined the Racing Sausages after a one-game debut in 2006.

BARRELMAN

In 2015, Barrelman made his debut as a team mascot. Barrelman served as the primary Brewers logo from the team's first season in Milwaukee (1970) through the 1977 season. The iconic logo was first used by the original American Association Brewers in the 1940s.

HANK MASCOT

After Hank's newly-found fame became too much for one dog to handle, the Hank walkabout was introduced during Wisconsin Humane Society Day at Miller Park on September 13, 2014.

HANK "THE BALLPARK PUP"

The morning of February 17, 2014 dawned sunny and warm in Phoenix, not unlike most of the days that the Milwaukee Brewers see at their Phoenix Spring Training headquarters. But what first seemed like an ordinary day soon became much more, all because of a visit from a four-legged friend.

Many major metro areas are overwhelmed with a problem of stray animals, and Phoenix is no different. Small dogs are occasionally seen wandering the outskirts of the Brewers' training fields, but they are typically too scared to interact with anyone on site. That day, though, a scruffy, dirty, and slightly injured little dog wandered up to staff at the Brewers' Spring Training camp and made himself at home. This pup was fearless, and he knew a good thing when he saw it. Not long after, the little guy was named Hank (after the great Hank Aaron), and his story was just starting.

Hank was cared for by staff on-site, and soon Brewers coach Ed Sedar became his unofficial guardian. Sedar would feed Hank from the clubhouse buffet each day, and he quickly became friendly with various players and staff. It was clear, though, that the priority was to find Hank's home, and the Brewers set out to do just that.

By using their social and traditional media channels, the Brewers posted regular updates on Hank's exploits. Every day, Hank would make visits to the team's clubhouse, where he interacted with players and coaches at their lockers. Later, Hank went from station to station with the players as they participated in drills, ran occasionally with the Johnsonville Famous Racing Sausages, and hosted meet-and-greets with visiting players, celebrities and fans. Outfitted in a Brewers jersey, photos and updates of Hank's activities were posted every day by the Brewers, and it wasn't long before national media picked up on the story.

Locally, nationally and internationally, Hank's story appeared everywhere – ABC World News Tonight, The Today Show, People Magazine, The Tonight Show and countless others all featured Hank's heart-warming tale, and the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel ran photos and stories about Hank virtually every day for over a month.

What didn't happen, though, was just as surprising. Despite the team's best efforts, nobody came forward to claim Hank as their lost pet. Working with the Wisconsin Humane Society, however, the Brewers arranged to have Hank adopted by a team executive, and Hank's forever home shifted north.

Hank's popularity in Milwaukee preceded his arrival to the city, and the Brewers rolled out a line of merchandise to celebrate this popularity. In addition, the team partnered with the Wisconsin Humane Society to donate 20% of the retail sales from all Hank items to the "Hank Fund." By September, the fund had reached a level of $150,000 through this contribution.

Hank's story in Milwaukee included an Opening Day introduction on the field, a sold-out bobblehead night, photo sessions and meet-and-greets with fans at games, a Hank House (dog house) built to host Hank on his Miller Park visits, and a full-size "walkabout" mascot in Hank's likeness.

In January 2015, Hank was named "Dog of the Year" at the CW Network's World Dog Awards in Los Angeles. The award was presented to the canine who made the biggest impact on pop culture in 2014.

Hank is welcomed warmly by his friends Bernie Brewer and the Johnsonville Famous Racing Sausages. But what made Hank unique was how he came to be part of the organization. The Brewers didn't find Hank; Hank found the Brewers.

AMERICAN FAMILY FIELDS OF PHOENIX

The Brewers begin their inaugural season at Brewers Fields of Phoenix in 2019. On November 15, 2017, the Phoenix City Council voted in favor of a plan to renovate the team's Spring Training complex, formerly known as Maryvale Baseball Park. Four months later, upon completion of Spring Training, ground was broken and construction was underway in March 2018.

The Spring Training home of the Brewers consists of many state-of-the-art features, including a new 82,000 square-foot clubhouse and office building. This building houses new locker rooms, training spaces and support functions, a new flagship retail store and a primary ticket office at the new home plate gate. The north side of the building is home to new concession stands and restrooms as the first base concourse has been widened to accommodate better pedestrian traffic. A second floor includes new offices for baseball operations, featuring a walkout patio with views of the training facilities.

The complex also includes a new entry plaza, renovated space for sports science and psychological services, an eight-lane batting tunnel, an agility field, new pitching and catching mounds, a high performance practice field matching Miller Park's dimensions, improvements to each of the seven playing fields and a new scoreboard.

AMERICAN FAMILY FIELDS OF PHOENIX

John F. Long, a longtime Valley developer, donated 56 acres of land to make the team's Spring Training complex a reality in 1998. The Brewers oversee operating the facility, which was designed by HKS Design and built by Mortenson Construction. Additionally, the Brewers have partnered with Grand Canyon University on a "Learning Lounge" at Brewers Fields of Phoenix, through which local students will have access to free tutoring.

An agility field and 82,000 square-foot clubhouse and office building are among many new amenities.

New covered pitching and catching mounds will accomodate up to eight pairs of players.

A new entry plaza features the primary ticket office and gates to the ballpark.
